GREATEST CROWD IN HISTORY TO SEE GIANT HEAVYWEIGHTS MIX

FIRPO PUTS AN END TO HIS WORK

Final Day's Training Consists of Light Exercises on Way to Gotham

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) Sept. 12.—A light bag punching, rope skipping and shadow boxing workout lasting less than ten minutes ended Luis Angel Firpo's training today for the world's championship match with Jack Dempsey in New York Friday night.

More than 500 persons were in the grand stand to see the South American go through his final exercises. They were disappointed because he did not appear to be in the best of health. He was in a fighting mood, and then he dismissed thoughts of the fight. Tomorrow and until the time for the contest Friday night he will rest in an apartment in uptown New York, twenty minutes' motor ride from the arena. His trainers will not permit any interviews until after the fight.

FOOTBALLER WILL TRAIN FOR BOXING

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
ST. LOUIS (Mo.) Sept. 12.—St. Louis University football player, who is a member of the team, will be boxing tomorrow.

St. Louis University football player, who is a member of the team, will be boxing tomorrow. He will also box daily with a brother there who was boxing instructor at the university last year. He was formerly a football player at Nebraska. Eugene Melady, Omaha, Munn's manager, plans to match Munn with some heavyweight contender in St. Louis about October 15.

SHELBOURNE FOUR IS EASY WINNER

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12.—The Shelbourne four defeated the British Burlington team 15 to 6 in the international polo tourney on the Philadelphia Country Club field at Bala today.

Fletcher Sets World's Record at Ambassador

Charles Fletcher of San Diego broke his own world record for the 220-yard breaststroke in the feature event of the Ambassador Hotel's aquatic carnival last night. The Ambassador plunged Fletcher's time was 2m. 4.4s., breaking the mark of 2m. 5.4s., which he established recently at Coronado. Fletcher said before he started the race that he intended to break his record and he easily outdistanced the field. William Fair of Venice was second in the 220-yard breaststroke.

Tommy Davis Claims Speedy Mile Runner

In Harles (Sandy) Sanders, Tommy Davis claims he has a miler that will break a few records next spring. The Lincoln track miler announced that he is willing to wager the weekly wage that Sanders will run very close to the 4:30 mark. Sanders transferred to Lincoln from Jefferson last year and was not eligible for the past track season. Davis also says that Farrell, Boyer and Yoshida will also do some fast stepping in the distance runs.

Fans Begin to Scent Fumes of Battle Already

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Fans tonight began to scent the "smoke" of battle—that atmosphere peculiarly confined to heavyweight championship fights—with the title struggle between Jack Dempsey, champion, and Luis Angel Firpo, Argentine challenger, only two days off.

Firpo arrived in New York tonight from his training camp in Atlantic City. The grim-visaged South American will remain in seclusion until the afternoon of the fight.

Dempsey is expected to break camp early tomorrow arriving here in the afternoon. Friday afternoon he will meet his challenger for the first time when they appear before the State Athletic Commission to weigh in. Followers of both Dempsey and Firpo declared today at the conclusion of the training campaign that the fighters were conditioned to perfection.

Low Prices

"This fight would have broken the record of $1,000,000 set by the Dempsey-Carpentier match," said Rickard, "if similar prices had been charged. Now the top is $275, whereas two years ago in Jersey it was $250."

Construction of the ringade, temporary bleachers sections and other additions to the Polo Grounds will be completed by noon tomorrow, said the promoter. Little change was reported today in betting odds.

A notable gathering, including men prominent in society, the financial and theatrical worlds, viewed the championship contest. Diplomats also will be numbered in the throng for the many guests of South American nations, all keenly interested in the career of Firpo, the first Latin to attain such pugilistic prominence, have made reservations. Among those expected to attend are: Kermit and Archie Roosevelt, Charles Sabin, Mortimer Schiff, and W. A. Harriman, financiers; George M. Cohan, Harry Fraser, David Belasco, William A. Brady, theatrical producers; Clarence Mackay, president of the Postal Telegraph Company; Louis Stoddard, polo star; Foxhall Keene, Babe Ruth, Jim Corbett, former heavyweight champion; Harry Payne Whitney, turfman and oil magnate, and Frank Munsey, publisher.

Ready to Go

A whole flock of heavy-hitting nimrods will be prepared to leap on the unsuspecting deer when the season opens in this district next Sunday—among them Pete Peterson, Dyas gun expert.

The last of the hunting districts of California, No. 4, will be thrown open for deer hunting next Sunday morning. This district takes in Los Angeles county and other Southern California sections and is the one district looked forward to each year by local sportsmen. As with the dove season, which opened the first of this month, literally hundreds of Angeleno deer stalkers will be out on the opening day. Deer hunting in this district can be carried on within a few miles of Los Angeles proper and from all reports the deer-footed game will be plentiful.

Los Angeles Nimrods to Get on Trail of Bucks as Season Opens

Every ready to stimulate interest in the great outdoors and its pleasures, especially hunting, the E. H. Dyas Company offers for competition two Savage rifles of the latest sporting type, for the hunters who kill the two largest deer during the season of September 15 to October 15, inclusive. The registration will be not necessarily, however, in district four.

The bucks must be weighed, dressed, at the Dyas log cabin, the weight registered with either Paul Wolf, Pete Peterson or Frank Buckley. The registration will be witnessed and at the end of the season the weights will be gone over and the shooters with the most pounds of deer will be awarded the firearms.

The rifles are the very latest in sporting models. They are light, take down and hammerless and a pleasant gun to handle. They are trophies that no doubt many local deer hunters will compete for.

However, the shooters must always remember that two bucks a season is the limit and that all hunters must have a license. As for the good shooting locations, Peter Peterson, the hunting expert of the Dyas Company, gives out the following, which should be good bets.

The Santa Monica Mountain range, outskirts of San Bernardino, around San Jacinto, Oak Flat region, the western slopes of the White Mountains and south of Acton.

DEER DUE FOR DEATH ON SUNDAY

Francis Hunter dashed away to a 4-1 lead on Vincent Richards in the first set but missed a great chance to win it decisively by dropping his service and allowing Richards to pull even at 4-4. Hunter reached set point at 4-5 and 10-40, but Richards' brilliant service ace saved him. The final break came when Richards dropped his delivery at 6-7, presenting Hunter with the set at 6-6 by a double fault. Both players had been fighting for the set, resulting in brilliant volleying rallies.

BOTH MEN VERY TIRED
Hunter went to 20-0 on his service only to have Richards run 4 points in a row for the break. Hunter broke Richards' delivery and the score was 1-1. Both men were very tired. Richards made the third successive break by winning Hunter's delivery for 3-1. Richards was falling back on a steady, accurate game as Hunter tired. Richards consolidated his lead at 3-1. Hunter pulled out of a big hole to win his service for 3-2. Richards leading. Hunter pulled even at 3-3 after a terrific struggle ending with a crashing drive that left Richards helpless. The tennis was marvelous. Hunter charged the net, but Richards volleyed with drive and held even. Twice Hunter reached game point, but Richards saved it each time. Hunter threw away his service with a missed setter and a costly double fault and Richards went into the lead 3-2. Richards held his service and consolidated his lead at 4-2. Service held away until Richards carried the set 4-6 and the score was tied at 4-4.

Richards opened the third set by breaking Hunter's service by brilliant volleying and holding his own for 2-0. Richards' ground game had been steadily improving and at other points he was playing great tennis. Hunter hit a wild streak that proved very costly and Richards went to 4-0 before Hunter could win a game. The set was Richards' at 6-2 and he led 2 sets to 1.

BREAKS SERVICE
Richards broke Hunter's service in the first game of the fourth set. The New Rochelle man was seemingly upset by the noisy demonstration of the gallery at the close of the Alonso-Brugnon match. Richards was still in his most irresistible vein and could make few mistakes. He went to 4-0.

Racket Stars in Series of East vs. West

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Eastern and western tennis stars will meet in an inter-sectional series, similar to those held during the past few years, at the West Side Tennis Club, Forest Hills, N. Y., the 21st and 22nd inst., the United States Lawn Tennis Association announced tonight. The series will be the last important event of the court season.

William M. Johnston of San Francisco and R. Norris Williams of Philadelphia have been chosen captains of the rival teams. The westerners will have Clarence J. Griffin, Robert and Howard Kinsey of San Francisco; Harvey Smogdrowsky of Los Angeles, among others, as available material. The eastern contingent probably will be selected from William F. Tilden, Vincent Richards, Francis T. Hunter, Watson M. Washburn, Carl Fischer and Wallace F. Johnston.

Manuel Alonso, Spanish star, who has been a resident of the east for some time, also will be eligible for selection by Williams.

CONFERENCE BODY MEETS SATURDAY
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—The Pacific Coast Athletic Conference will hold a meeting in Portland the 14th and 15th inst. to consider the settlement of all questions of eligibility of players on university teams during the present football season, and for other business. It was announced here today by John U. Calkins, president of the association. The regular annual meeting of the conference will be held in Berkeley in December.

MERCURY HANDBALL TOURNAMENT POSTPONED
Because of the demands of the players for more time in which to practice and get into better condition, Charley Keppen postponed the Los Angeles Athletic Club handball tournament to September 24.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
DONCASTER, Sept. 12.—Papyrus, the Derby winner, was beaten by two lengths by Lord Derby's fleet filly Tranquil in the St. Leger stakes here today before a crowd of more than 150,000.

Besides this blow to his prestige, Papyrus came away from the race bleeding from injuries about the legs, suffered when he was crowded about a half mile from the start, but neither his reputation nor his flesh is wounded badly enough to prevent him from going to the United States, as scheduled to race the best American 3-year-old. The final agreement providing for his shipment across the Atlantic was signed this morning by Ben Irish, his owner, and C. J. Fitzgerald, agent for Major August Belmont.

TERESINA IS THIRD
Next to Tranquil and Papyrus at the finish today came H. H. Aga Khan's Teresina and A. K. Macomber's Parth. The betting on the winner, who was sired by Swynford, was 100 to 3 against, on Teresina 100 to 7. Thirteen horses ran the mile, six and one-half furlongs for the stakes, which were about 4500 guineas.

A quarter of a mile from the finish the Duke of Westminster's Twelve Pointer looked like a winner. Then Parth plunged ahead and kept in front for a hundred yards until Steve Donoghue shot Papyrus to the rails and led the field. It was then that Tranquil, with a gallant burst of speed, overtook the derby winner to finish two lengths in front.

Firpo Confident; Leonard Favors Dempsey

ARGENTINE OFF FOR NEW YORK

Challenger Not Afraid of Outcome of Fight

Firpo to Rest Until Time of Title Contest

Atlantic City Neighbors Wish Luis Luck

BY LUIS ANGEL FIRPO
(Copyright, 1933 in United States and Canada by Luis Angel Firpo, New York, N. Y.)
(Exclusive Dispatch)

ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) Sept. 12.—This afternoon I leave here to wait for the bell that will send me on my way to a chance at the championship of the world. My training work is done. I am confident. I have no fear. I am very sure of that. I am not afraid.

We will arrive in New York in the evening and I will go direct to a place that is prepared for me. I do not say where that place is. For a long time I have been like an animal in a cage that people come to look at. Wherever I have been and at all times there have been those who wanted to see me. I do not like to be rude. Always when callers came I have admitted them and bowed and talked to them through my interpreter.

TIERED OF VISITORS

At my cottage at Atlantic City there has been no privacy. From early morning until night the lower floor has been crowded with visitors. I have had to retire to my bedroom on the upper floor when I wished to be alone and even there I could always hear the talk of those below who were waiting for me to appear. When the cottage was not full of famous names who came to see me, or boxing writers who wished an interview, then my neighbors of Atlantic City have been present. They have learned to think well of the "Wild Bull of the Pampas," these nice neighbors of mine, who were so worried when they first heard that Luis Firpo, the Argentine heavyweight, was to have a cottage among them.

First their children came and got acquainted with me. Every day there were many children about the front porch and on my lawn and in the back of my cottage. They came and played with me and asked me questions and were not afraid. So then the fathers and mothers came also and shook my hand and wished me luck. This morning when I was packing up and loading down my automobile with bags and grips they all came crowding in. Fathers, mothers and children and grandparents. They came and laughed with their neighbor, Luis Angel Firpo, at the funny things that happened while we were packing and helped me to tie up packages and carry out grips. Then they shook me by the hand and wished me much luck in the fight for the championship. Those nice people of Atlantic City who had been my neighbors. No matter what the crowd shall yell at me while I am fighting Dempsey, I will know that there are people in a neighborhood where I have lived and become known to me, and not wish ill to Luis Firpo, even though he is a South American fighting an American for the championship of the world.

FIRPO HAS NO FEAR

I wish that people, who wonder if I have fear in my heart, could have seen us all this morning, packing to get away. Such laughter at the funny things that happened. I have one automobile and this, my secretary, Widmer, was to drive to New York. Into that car we put bags and grips and packages until the top bulged out and still there was more to be put in.

"Where am I to sit?" Widmer cried, and we laughed and put him in more and told him if there was no room for him in the driver's seat he would have to put a rope around his shoulders and tow the car to New York. When he finally drove away he could hardly be seen, there were so many packages about him.

"Never mind, Widmer," I called after him. "At least you will not be arrested for speeding, for if a traffic cop stops you he will be unable to find my hidden packages beneath all those bundles and you will go free."

LUIS WILL SLEEP

Much of the time I will sleep. I have the ability to lie down and go to sleep whenever I choose. I will sleep much on Thursday and Friday. Then, too, I will talk with my own people and tell of funny things that have happened to me in my fights and travels. Then there will be music. We sing the songs of my country. They will be days of rest and merriment, these two that I spend in New York before the fight. The day is done and it remains now only to laugh and rest and wait. I have been asked what my diet will be on these last two days.

NO DIET FOR FIRPO

I smile when I am asked this question. A diet to me is something for people who are ill. I am not ill; from now until the time of the fight I will eat as I always eat. There will be three meals a day and much of steak and eggs. In the afternoon of the day I fight I will have my dinner as usual. Then I will lie down and sleep and when it is time, Lavette will awaken me and say: "Come Luis, it is time to go to work." I will arise then and dress and go to the Polo Grounds.

After that, who knows? I cannot say for certain how I will feel after the fight is over. I can say for certain how I feel now. I feel confident and unafraid. Be sure of that. I am, as always, unafraid.

FRANKLIN ELEVEN IN FOR TOUGH SLEDDING

Franklin football, winner of the City League football championship last year, is in for some tough sledding on the gridiron this fall, according to all available reports. The Kitefliers led practically every veteran on their championship squad and Coach Sam Tannison will have a hard job of picking a formidable eleven out of the material on hand in his first year as grid mentor at Franklin.

Six Arrested for Printing Phony Tickets

(BY A. F. HUNT WIRE)

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Six men were arrested in a Duane-street print shop today and police confiscated $45,000 worth of counterfeit tickets for the Dempsey-Firpo title match Friday night. Some of the tickets, the police said, had been put in circulation. The men were charged with acting in concert in printing and distributing them. While the investigation was being made an investigation was under way by Dist. Atty. Banton into charges that a batch of tickets for the fight having a box-office value of $27,500 had been sold for $77,500, and that many other single tickets had been sold at proportionately increased prices.

Tex Rickard, promoter of the bout, declared two separate attempts to put counterfeit tickets on the market had been discovered. In addition to the Duane-street plant, he said, another shop had been raided and plates confiscated before the charged counterfeiters had had time to start printing. He was confident, he said, that detectives had checked practically all circulation of bogus tickets.

The counterfeit tickets printed were of $5.00 and $10.00 and bore resemblance to the originals down to the minutest details.

HUNTER VICTOR OVER RICHARDS

for Brugnion's victory at Wimbledon in 1921. The Spanish star simply swept Brugnion aside, driving past him cleanly as the Frenchman came in or cutting off clean volleys at the net himself. As the first two sets were so completely dominated by Alonso, no one gave Brugnion a fighting chance. He himself made the mistake of letting up and the little Frenchman quickly seized his opportunity and sprang into the offensive. The third set was all Brugnion's, the fourth set found Alonso fighting on the defensive and although he carried it to twelve games, he could not stave off the Frenchman. The fifth set was anybody's match as it opened. Brugnion was dashing to the net and volleying brilliantly. Alonso seemed nervous and anxious. Service broke away to 3-1. A sensational volley by Alonso and a missed kill by Brugnion gave Alonso the vital break for 4-3. Brugnion was visibly tired and seemed discouraged. He did not show the fight which radiated from Alonso. The Spanish went to 5-3 on his delivery. Brugnion was dead on his feet. He had made a gallant, but losing fight and knew it. A marvelous volley with both men at the net was won by Brugnion. The French star won his service for 1-4. Alonso leading. The big game was at hand. Brugnion threw away an aces volley at 15-all. Alonso blew a drive for 30-all. Alonso ran out the game, set and match in two more points, 6-5, 6-2, 4-4, 6-7, 6-4.

CONTINUES MARCH

Robert Kinsey continued his triumphal march at the expense of Stanley W. Pearson, 7-5, 6-1, 6-3. The steady crafty chop stroke of the Californian was too accurate for Pearson, although the Philadelphian made a notable stand in the first set. The last two sets were bitterly contested but Kinsey had a slight edge.

Little Bill Johnston was extended to defeat his fellow-Californian, Howard Kinsey, 6-1, 10-8, 6-3. Least toward Johnston took a set from Johnston and for a while it seemed he was to repeat his performance. Johnston started like a house on fire, driving clean and hard to the corner and rushing the net to cut off a winning volley. Kinsey could win only one game. The second set found Kinsey discard his drive for a chop which he followed to the net in an effort to force Johnston away from the better tactics. The action worked well. Johnston repeatedly erring as he tried to pass the advancing Kinsey. Three times Johnston broke Kinsey's delivery only to drop his own, but finally he succeeded in breaking up Kinsey's attack and took the set, 10-8. The final set found Johnston in the ascendancy throughout and he won it, 6-3. Little Bill was not quite as impressive as yesterday but still showed he is rounding into his best form.

NORTON EASY VICTOR

Brian I. C. Norton of England overpowered Beekman, the local star, 6-2, 6-1, 6-2, in a masterly display of all court tennis. The little Englishman was tearing around the court at breakneck speed, making marvelous gets and brilliant passing shots, which kept Beekman on the defensive.

R. N. WILLIAMS II DROVE HIS WAY TO VICTORY

R. N. Williams II drove his way to victory over F. R. Leighton Crawford of England by chasing the British player to all corners of the court after his hard-hit shots. In the first two sets Williams was wild and inclined to be careless, but in the final set he flashed the brand of tennis which is typically Williams at his best and swamped Crawford. The final score of 6-3, 6-4, 6-0, tells the whole story.

TILDEN DOWNS FISCHER

I hit Carl Fischer on one of his wild days which coupled with another day of steadiness for me allowed me to advance easily at his expense, 6-1, 6-5, 6-3. The little left-hander seemed over-anxious and nervous, inclined to err at critical periods and not at his best at any time. Frank T. Anderson sprang a wild surprise by defeating Dr. George King in straight sets, 6-4, 6-1, 6-4. In a fine display of tennis.

WILLIAMS FAVORED

Tomorrow the big battles start: R. N. Williams II meets B. I. C. Norton, in a match that only a clairvoyant can be sure of predicting correctly. I rather think Williams will win, but it is a great question. Manuel Alonso and I meet for the twenty-fourth time this year, and I know I face a serious proposition. Robert Kinsey plays Frank Hunter, with the odds on Hunter, while Billy Johnston should walk away with Frank T. Anderson.

Dempsey's Camp a Contrast to Opponent's

King of Heavies is Fastest of Butlers

World's Lightweight Champion

SARATOGA SPRINGS, Sept. 12.—Going from the Luis Firpo training quarters at Atlantic City to the Jack Dempsey quarters here is like walking out of the darkness into the sunshine. It seems to be about the difference between amateurishness and professionalism. The camp of the challenger seems to have no head or tail to it, whereas the champion's camp is nothing but system. My trip here has been for two successive workouts I'm at a loss for words. In my widest dreams I never expected to see what has been seen here. He is the greatest conditioned heavyweight I have ever seen. I am supposed to be fast in the ring, but not a bit faster than the remarkable Dempsey. I saw wind up his boxing session with a wild burst of speed. When I am only a couple of days away from an important bout such as was my recent battle with Lew Tendler, I am inclined to be irritable and that was the way I thought I'd find the big champion. Instead I found the most genial, confident boxer I have ever met on the eve of a big battle.

NOT FEEBISH

When Dempsey was training for the bout with Willard and also the one with Carpenter, I understand from friends who saw him work out that just before the match he was as cranky as he could be. Not even his closest friends could approach him. Up here he wants everyone around him. His talks on any subject that may be broached with keen interest. He could only do this providing he wasn't worried about the outcome of his fight with Firpo. Outside of the arduous training the toughest thing about being a champion is, in the mental strain. You worry about a million and one things. There is the worry whether or not you will get square deal from the judges and referee. You worry whether or not you will meet with an accident. You hate to think of the title slipping from your grasp and all the big money and glory that go with it lost to you forever.

Firpo has a knockout punch. No one denies that. If he hasn't a good chance it is not likely that $50,000 people would be paying a $125,000 to see it. That's why I expected to see Dempsey fight a nervous battle before the fight. I thought the old mental strain would get him. But Dempsey is as cheerful as could be. He talked with me and asked me what was going to be the outcome of the postponement of my bout with Dundee.

INVERCREDIBLE

"By the way, Benny," he said just as I left him, "I understand that you were down to Atlantic City a couple of days ago looking Firpo over. What do you think of him?"

I told him I thought he was a big, slow, strong fellow with a punch. That was all. He seemed pleased as though I confirmed what he thought of him.

The next time I met him I delivered a bunch of letters to Jack, many of them from friends, and he read them with the interest that showed that he hasn't a worry on his mind as to the outcome of tomorrow night's fight in the Polo Grounds against Firpo.

GREAT SHAPE

Now regarding his boxing and appearance, he may not be able to punch as well as he did at Toledo, but he confessed to me himself that he didn't think that he had the same power behind his blows now. He said that his accuracy and speed I think are even greater. That's what several old timers who saw him both here and at Toledo told me. One member Stanley Ketchell, the famous middleweight champion who fought many heavyweights including his twelve-round bout with Jack Johnson, was fast but Dempsey is in the ring now. He is going every second. There's not a let-up. I saw Jack Burke, who hails from Pittsburgh, and who is a good man, get ready to receive a left hook and like a flash but without any telegraphing whatsoever Dempsey drove over a fight to head. Dempsey's punches hurt. "All of Jack's punches hurt," Alex Trambitas told me the same thing, and so did George West, the English welterweight.

If Rodin had seen Dempsey in action yesterday, his perfect body without an ounce of superfluous flesh and his lines like those of a lightweight, he undoubtedly would have made arrangements with Jack to create in marble "the boxing champion," which would go down forever in world's history as did "The Thinker."

VERY FAST

Jack was as fast as lightning. You couldn't tell where the next punch was coming from. He wore in and out in his famous fashion. First hitting with the left and then with the right, in short, snappy punches that are bound to wear an opponent down to a position where he will be a question of a knockout blow with either the right or left hand. The first day here I saw Dempsey box Burke two rounds. George West, Alex Trambitas and Frank Laureato, a like-looking welterweight from Troy who boxes Marty Summers of New York in Troy next Monday night, each box one round with him. He was to have boxed Ray Newman but did not. He did a round of bag punching, one of pulleys and a round of shadow boxing.

HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

San Francisco, after a short start, played better ball last week than is its habit in these parts, and one result was to put a much improved appearance on some of their players.

Geno Valla is a 50 per cent better ball player than he was in this park a year ago. At that time he seemed unable to hit on the local lot, but he is now dangerous at any and all stages, despite the alleged flaws in his stance at the plate. This also was the first occasion that the fans had anything like a real look at Paul Waner, the other highly touted young outfielder. Waner certainly raised himself in public esteem. He made a couple of wonderful catches which ordinarily would have gone for base hits, and slammed the ball with vigor. Heretofore he has been known as a myth here. Fans were acquainted with him chiefly through his fashionable batting average appearing on the score cards.

Whether or not Valla and Waner are doing as well as they are ready for the big league is not being argued here. But Gene certainly looks as good as some who have advanced. As for his ability to hit big league pitching, as in the case of any minor league player, that is a matter which can be decided only on the basis of an actual test.

Hal Rhyme unquestionably was the sensation of the recent series. Hal is a good player to big league class, if not actually there, particularly in his fielding. Some of his stops were worthy of a Hollocher or a Peckinpaugh, and his batting was of a dangerous order.

Many believed that Rhyme, without Willie Kamen at his right, would be at a distinct disadvantage this season, and that this would be shown in his work. But it seems to have had no appreciable effect on his playing. Mulligan covers a lot of ground himself around third, and Hal is more ready in his fielding than he was a year ago.

At the start of last season Rhyme was a good deal of an experiment. And he was tending away from numerous games. His improvement, both in steadiness and the brilliance of his stops has been marked.

Ways of baseball are strange and in many cases surprise us.

San Francisco sold Jimmy O'Connell for $75,000. They bought Tim Hendryx from another minor league club. This was a major league castoff. No doubt he cost the Seals a tidy sum, but only a small fraction of $75,000.

Yet Tim strikes one today as more valuable than the Seals' own O'Connell. Not many think that he is a greater ball player than O'Connell is now or will be. But Hendryx is a real performer for this circuit. He is a good enough hitter, perhaps the poorest better in the circuit with men on, and fully as important as all them, has the know.

Down here Hendryx is the most dreaded man on the San Francisco club with anybody on base. Two out of three times on an average he will advance his man by some means or another.

I saw Hendryx during the recent series was Tim up with one or more on the sacks. Only seven times did he fail to move the runner up one or more bases.

Hendryx, not quite fast enough for the big show, is an ideal minor leaguer.

Jack Warner thus far looms as the best of the Vernon rookies. His fielding is uniformly of a high order. If he can pick up in his hitting, which he probably will, he will be a future star. Tiner and Christian, young pitchers, while better in their first starts, made a favorable impression. Little Whitey's backstopping made quite a hit with the fans.

His backstopping is little less than the marvel of the ages. His fielding was a big crowd favorite. The Vernon-San Francisco series, and our own hitting of the Seals. Chad, apparently is covering as much ground as he did last year, and playing the batters with even greater finesse.

BRANCH BANK ISSUE TO FRONT

Californians Argue Before
Reserve Board

Country Financiers Oppose Expansion Plan

No Definite Progress Made Through Parley

(BY A. R. NIGHT WIRE)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The Federal Reserve Board was asked today to announce a definite policy with respect to branch banking, bringing into the open again the old controversy over whether the practice should be authorized. A delegation of Californians representing views in favor of and against limitation of the branches any bank may establish was before the board, but a five-hour discussion netted no tangible results. While members of the board said logical arguments had been presented in behalf of each claim, they admitted they were no nearer a conclusion than they had been before.

From time to time representatives of small and country banks have urged enunciation of a Federal policy on the question, the claim being that strong banks were absorbing smaller banks with the result that the small institutions with limited resources were slowly being squeezed out.

THE OTHER SIDE
Against this contention the argument was renewed today that the banks able to maintain branches were likewise able to carry sufficient funds, making loans available in any amount at any time. This condition, it was asserted, reacted in favor of the agricultural industry at present because many smaller banking houses have reached almost their lending limit. In the particular controversy before the board, the so-called independent bankers of California asserted several banks in Los Angeles and San Francisco were gradually gaining control of many country banks. Agents of the small banks contended that such a condition could not go on without the "independents" being forced out of business.

No applications for approval of proposed branch banks were pending at present before the board, which recently has rejected several such applications by Los Angeles and San Francisco banks.

OTHERS IN SIGHT
Reports were current, however, that other applications were in preparation and so, according to members of the delegation, an agreement was reached to come to Washington "and fight it out" before the Reserve Board.

Attending the conference, in addition to Acting Under-Secretary Winston of the Treasury and the board members, were J. A. Bagdad, vice-president of the Bank of Italy, San Francisco; C. F. Fier, vice-president of the Pacific Southwest Trust and Savings Bank, Los Angeles; and former State Banking Commissioner Howard Whipple, president of the First National Bank of Turlock; E. L. Bickford, President of the First National Bank of Japan; W. F. Morrish, president of the Bank of Berkeley; and E. N. Baty, and William J. Ralston, representing the United States Bankers' Association, opposed to branch banking.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
OLNEY (Ill.) Sept. 12.—"Hootch" airplanes are the latest menace to rural folk.

George Benduradt of Cairo, Ill., and a companion, while under the influence of corn liquor, essayed a flight over this town. They decided to cut some capers for the entertainment of townspeople. After turning the corners of several buildings at close quarters, swooping over roofs of dwellings and narrowly missing a crowded circus tent, the aviators got tangled up in telephone wires, which upset the machine. Both men are in a hospital nursing broken bones and bruised muscles.

According to the police, they will later be called on to explain the presence of a bottle in the airplane containing a few shots of "white mule."

GOV. HUNT AGAINST

ARIZONA EXECUTIVE TO GO
SLOW ON COLORADO RIVER PROBLEM

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
PHOENIX, Sept. 12.—Gov. Hunt today declared he would not call a special session of the Legislature this year, leaving an assumption that there might be a session after the end of the year.

He stated his opposition to special sessions on general principle and because of the expense involved. He said he saw nothing in the Colorado River situation that calls for quick action, and that the highway department would be slow to move if the counties will give co-operation.

Under the new highway bill, the counties have been given three-fourths of the highway money. The State Engineer now is traveling to put before County Supervisors a plan under which county work will be done by the State Highway Department, and he is said to be meeting with encouragement. Many legislators and the American Legion are demanding a legislative session to dispose of the Colorado River compact.

MANILA, Sept. 12.—A sensation was created in political circles here again today when Gov.-Gen. Leonard Wood intimated he might make public the details of the expenditure of the annual 1,000,000 peso Philippine independence fund.

The intimation was given in response to a letter which the Governor-General received from representatives of the Democratic party, who said they had been unable to find out how the funds had been and were being spent. The letter asked for authority to examine all vouchers. The Governor-General said he would study the matter carefully before acting.

Your Pain May Be Neuritis

Many sufferers who are treating for rheumatism, neuritis, or sciatica are really afflicted with neuritis. This disease of the nervous system causes pain, aches, and numbness in different parts of the body, just like the ailments mentioned above.

The most common sources of neuritis are colds, injuries, bruises, infectious diseases or a run-down nervous system. Long-standing cases of rheumatism or sciatica frequently attack the nerves, setting up inflammation and producing neuritis. No matter what its origin, neuritis is always accompanied by sharp, piercing pains, usually in the shoulder, forearm, neck, thigh, leg or back.

Don't bother with medicines that relieve for today only. Assist Nature to remove the cause of inflammation and pain by taking Sore Neuritis Tablets—a scientific treatment that has often brought lasting relief after other methods failed. # Alhambra

Offers a Share of its Success—

ALHAMBRA today is entering upon a phase of her commercial life that opens a new vista of opportunities to retailers and business men with a large vision for future profits.

In 1920, with a population of less than ten thousand, Alhambra was commercially suburban to Los Angeles where larger stores only thirty minutes distant attracted fully 70% of the local trade.

Two things happened to bring about a radical change in this condition.

First, the local merchants themselves organized an active Association to develop local good will.

Second, the City entered upon a period of rapid, substantial growth that doubled the home owning population in three years' time, enabling the merchants to increase their stocks and take smaller margins of profit on a greater volume of trade.

As a result, at the beginning of this year the local merchants had increased their share of the local business from 30% to over 80%.

This double increase in volume of business, brought about by new population and the shifting of trade from Los Angeles to Alhambra, has strained to the utmost the resources of local business men.

But they have met the situation squarely. In less than nine months time they have increased the number of local business houses 90%. Stocks have been increased, sales forces enlarged and buildings and equipment improved to meet the increasing demand.

But still the volume of business continues to grow out of all bounds. The reason is to be found in the fact that Alhambra merchants, in expanding to meet increased local demands, have attracted the trade of the surrounding territory, that had hitherto gone to Los Angeles.

Thus Alhambra enters upon a new era of its commercial life, as the business center of a prosperous district of 60,000 people—as the commercial hub of the rich San Gabriel Valley.

Her business men invite successful merchants, wherever they are, to share in the prosperity of this new era and take a hand in building in Alhambra a commercial center that will be looked upon with pride by the great district it is to serve.

SANTA MONICA

EL DORADO OF 1923

Re-enacting scenes of long ago, the Pony Express from St. Joseph, Missouri, reappeared in San Francisco on Admission day. The next day a caravan of automobiles—the modern covered wagon train—left New York City for Santa Monica—El Dorado of 1923. The '49ers came for gold—the gold of commerce. The '23ers come for gold—the gold of life. Always people have dreamed of a place which they hoped to reach sometime where they might be free from many bonds, burdens and discomforts of their experience. This longing has led them towards the sunset. How beautiful it is that so much of this "gold of life" actually waits at the end of the trail to fulfill their hopes. The little strip of land on the south side of the Santa Monica Mountains, facing Santa Monica Bay, probably affords more of the comforts and pleasures of life than any other spot on earth. California has many attractions in different places, but Santa Monica has them all, including a nearly perfect climate both summer and winter. All things considered, it is earth's nearest approach to paradise. The New York-Santa Monica caravan is only a small example of the streams of automobiles pouring into Los Angeles from the north and east. To all of them Santa Monica extends a welcome. Before you stop in your westward journey come through to the end of the trail, the Santa Monica Palisades, where the mountains meet the sea, and view a sunset from the golden shore of Peace. If you ever turn back you will do it with regret.

The New Light-Six Sedan $1795

TENS of thousands of satisfied Studebaker owners can tell you the "Whys" for the increase of one hundred and fifty per cent in Studebaker Light-Six closed car sales this year over last—and 1922 was a record-breaking year.

Because they are—

superfine medium-sized, medium-priced enclosed cars built complete in Studebaker plants with but a single overhead cost—economical to operate and maintain, due to their advanced design and construction and the use of the highest quality of materials throughout—

exceptionally comfortable and very easy to handle in traffic with a most flexible motor and brakes of powerful, positive action—

full of genuine value that has earned for them a record of sturdy dependability under severely hard usage—

Driving is believing.

Now is an excellent time to exchange your open car for a closed one. Closed car demand indicates a difficulty of making quick delivery this winter and at that time your open car may not bring you as good a price.

The prices quoted below are for delivery right here with tax paid, of course.

MARKET LETTER OF THE NEW YORK COMMERCIAL

SEPTEMBER 13, 1923. [PART I]

COFFEE

Foreign news was more encouraging, there being a report that India had bought more Java. Cables reported Santo Domingo sugar offerings to the United Kingdom at 22 1/2, with buyers at 22 1/2, although later on there were buyers at 22 1/2.

A revival of activity in the cost and freight market for coffee was an interesting development. Upward of 9000 bags have been sold within the last couple of days, including 30 to 40 for prompt shipment at 12 1/2, 4-5 for immediate shipment at 12 1/2, and prompt shipment 4-6 at 12. Offers in the cost and freight market were higher in consequence of this activity.

In the contract market for coffee, September was quoted at a decline of 2 points on call, while other months were 1 to 5 points higher. There is not much enthusiasm in the part of the public with respect to coffee futures and most of the trading is done on the spot market.

After touching 8 1/2 to 8 3/4, September slipped back again to 8 1/2. September also gained a few points, but later on the spot market was depressed by the opening bids. Altogether not over 14,000 bags changed hands, this including a few from September to December at a spread of 100 points. At the close, the list was off 1 to 3 points.

RICE

The smallness of spot stocks of rice is pointed to in trade circles where no departure from the firm views so long entertained on this staple has been seen. Southern shippers are reluctant to commit themselves to definite shipment dates in view of the lateness of the crop. Foreigners rather slow on spot but more trading is expected after harvest has been readjusted to the domestic basis.

BUTTER

Butter is higher. The opening today was strong and with active bidding, prices were advanced 3/4 cent a pound. Seven 25-lb lots of extra in the creamery class sold at 44 1/2 cents and one lot of first brought 42 1/2 cents.

COPPER

The copper market here was a little weaker on the break. London bid prices unchanged at 13-14 to 14 cents a pound for electrolytic delivered. London cables showed a decline of 1/8 to 1/4, and futures 75 to 64 for spot and 64 to 63 for futures.

BONDS

Weakness in stocks transmitted a scattering of declines in the bond list, though few of the losses were more than fractional. The movement of the closing of the books on the new Treasury 4-1-4 per cent loan today did not lift the market, which was declining 1/8 to 1/4, and futures 75 to 64 for spot and 64 to 63 for futures.

EGGS

The egg market is firmer and 1 cent higher. White eggs are quiet but steady on best offerings. Pacific Coast white eggs, 50 to 52 cents; white eggs, 46 to 48 cents; first, 40 to 42 cents.

LEAD

Lead is unchanged at 6 3/4 cents to 7 cents New York. The decline was checked in London and a rally carried spot in that market up 10 to 12 1/2, 15 and futures 75 to 64 to 75, 76 to 75.

ZINC

Zinc is unchanged at 55 cents a pound. London is 10 to 12 1/2, 15 and futures 75 to 64 to 75, 76 to 75.

TIN

The decline in tin was checked in London but for the third day this week the price here was unchanged. In the domestic market virtually all deliveries and positions of straits and straits shipments closed unchanged at 41 cents a pound. London cables standard spot at 41 1/2, 42 to 43, 44 to 45, 46 to 47, 48 to 49, 50 to 51, 52 to 53, 54 to 55, 56 to 57, 58 to 59, 60 to 61, 62 to 63, 64 to 65, 66 to 67, 68 to 69, 70 to 71, 72 to 73, 74 to 75, 76 to 77, 78 to 79, 80 to 81, 82 to 83, 84 to 85, 86 to 87, 88 to 89, 90 to 91, 92 to 93, 94 to 95, 96 to 97, 98 to 99, 100 to 101, 102 to 103, 104 to 105, 106 to 107, 108 to 109, 110 to ## OLD H.C.L. IS ON THE RISE

Los Angeles Housewives Get Slight Edge on East

As That Living Has Gone Up Seventy-five Per Cent

Dollar of Nineteen Thirteen a Shrinking Violet

Housewives in Los Angeles have had to pay $1.38 less gross increase than their sister in Chicago between 1913 and June 1933 for one pound of sirloin steak, one dozen eggs, one pound of potatoes, one pound of granulated sugar, a pound of coffee, and an eight-ounce package of corn flakes.

These articles of food, if purchased in 1913, would have cost the Chicago housewife a total of $10.01. Bought on June 15, 1933, they would require the expenditure of $14.86, an advance of $4.85. In Los Angeles, the same goods in 1913 represented the payment of $11.34. On June 15, 1933, the prices had risen to $14.51, or a gain of $3.17.

It cost 75.1 per cent more to live in Los Angeles in June of this year than it did in December, 1913, with the greatest increases appearing in prices of furniture and furnishings and housing. Food prices advanced 39 per cent in this period, of which 4 per cent was registered in the twelve months from June, 1932 to June 1933, and 1 per cent from May to June of the current year.

Changes in the total cost of living since June, 1930, shows that in Los Angeles a decrease of 11.3 per cent occurred to June of this year, but from May to June, costs rose to the extent of 1.3 per cent.

These are figures compiled by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, and indicate that the cost of living costs in this city practically conform to the average of the remainder of the United States.

For the country as a whole, the statistics show that the cost of representative articles of food combined increased 3 per cent in June, 1933, as compared with June 15, 1932, and gained 1 per cent as contrasted with May 1933.

Total living costs in Los Angeles have pursued an average course during the periods of inflation and deflation since December, 1914, is indicated by the reports from other cities among the nineteen on which data have been secured by the Department of Labor, Detroit, which has followed closely behind this city in business activity during the last few years, shows the greatest increase in cost of living with a percentage gain of 81.7. Portland, Or., obtained the best results in this respect with an advance in costs of only 54.8 per cent.

Reflecting the decrease in the purchasing power of the dollar from 1913, the Bureau of Labor Statistics shows that $1 in 1913 would have purchased 3.9 pounds of sirloin steak, while on June 15, 1933 the same dollar would only buy 2.5 pounds. Bread, amounting to 17.9 pounds, could have been obtained in 1914 for $1 against 11.4 pounds in June of this year, and 58.8 pounds of potatoes in 1913 were sold for the amount that 31.5 pounds would bring in the market today.

Cotton, Coal and Autos Our Ranking Exports; Los Angeles Appetite for Lumber Unabated

Coal and coke have advanced to second place among America's export commodities, moving from fourteenth position, as shown in the quarterly analysis of foreign trade issued by the foreign commerce department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. This movement is disclosed in a comparison of coal exports during the first six months of the year with the corresponding period in 1933. It gives coal the highest place in the export trade.

Automobiles and their parts have taken third place in exports, also their highest position, and such commodities as agricultural machinery, copper rods, electric motors, fresh meats, kine spegler, boards and macaroni, and other goods to countries shows that Argentina, bought from the United States 21 per cent more than a year ago, and took ninth place among the country's foreign customers; that Canada purchased 39 per cent more than a year ago, and took 11th place.

The report speaks of references which have been made to a depressed condition of the export trade, and gives some figures on individual commodities.

"As compared with the average exports for the five years just preceding the war (1909-1913), refined copper was off 20 per cent; steel rails were off 41 per cent; iron pipes and fittings were off 11 per cent; iron wire was down 7 per cent; nails had dropped 38 per cent; it says: 'Exports of raw cotton were off 51 per cent; oats 45 per cent; hay 8 per cent; oleo oil 10 per cent and kerosene 23 per cent.'

"However, even among commodities showing recent declines there are a number of which the figures are still above prewar levels. The grains generally are ahead of prewar quantities. Wheat exports even for the first half of the year were 57 per cent above prewar. The faltering nature of the European demand and the low price of the grain are the sore spots here. Though corn exports have been falling, they are still 79 per cent above prewar. Wheat showing a downward tendency since the war, is still 33 per cent above prewar. Crude rubber exports, however, showing recent declines, but still strikingly above prewar levels.

Union Pacific System taxes for 1933 consumed 6.87 cents out of every dollar of gross earnings and 27.05 cents out of every dollar of net earnings.

Total taxes paid by all railroads of the United States in 1933 were $204,881,158, which was almost as much as the cost of digging the Panama Canal. Taxes exceeded cash dividends paid by the railroads to each year since 1917, or the entire expense of running the United States government in 1916. They are mounted to 6.4 per cent of the entire gross earnings.

Railroads are the largest taxpayers in many States. In some States, the railroads pay almost one-half the total.

Some of the tax money provided by the railroads is used to build and maintain highways on which trackless competitors operate. Some of the tax money is used to operate the railroads, but in most cases they take tonnage from the railroads and the taxes levied on the railroads and their trackless competitors are often unjustly apportioned.

Senator Borah, speaking in Congress last December, said: "It is very difficult to reduce freight rates if we continue to let the railroads increase taxes upon the railroads as we have for the last four years. The public utilities must collect this money from but one source, and that source is the ship."

"Railroads, like other businesses," says President C. R. Gray, "are willing to pay their share, but they ask that the tax burden be equitably shared and that the public appreciate that taxation is an element of increasing importance in railway costs."

DISASTER'S REACTION
Los Angeles importers and jobbers and retailers of silk agree that the Japanese disaster will have a sharp and early reaction in this market expressed in rising costs, and producing a greater strain on purse strings during the coming months of record the public appreciate that taxation is an element of increasing importance in railway costs."

Fortunes Made and Lost

California the golden has offered and still offers almost unparalleled opportunities for investment.

Fortunes in land, oil and other hundreds of ways.

Probably half the fortunes have been dissipated by unfortunate speculation.

Municipal Bonds will not make a man rich over night, but they offer a safe investment for your money and pay you rather handsomely for its use.

We'd like the opportunity of helping the owners of fortunes to keep them.

The Small Investor is the backbone of the bond business

That is why we give the same conscientious service and individual attention to the investor who buys $100 or $100,000 of bonds.

One thousand buyers of $100 each are a greater asset to us than one buyer of $100,000—but the facilities of the statistical department and all other service branches of our organization are available to all alike—large and small.

BOND QUOTATIONS

Cuba Bonds Break
NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—After moderate advances of industrial bonds in the early trading in bonds today, the entire list turned reactionary and closing prices were somewhat lower than yesterday's final figures. Some of the foreign issues, however, maintained a firm tone, notably Marcellus 5 1/2's and Holland American 5's, each gaining a point or more.

A break of 5 points by Cuban 5 1/2's reflected dislocation of the offering syndicate tomorrow, with a part of the bonds still unsold. The bonds dropped to 94 1/2, a new low for the year.

United States government bonds moved irregularly within a narrow limit.

Declines of a point or more were recorded in the railroad and industrial groups.

DAUGHERTY QUIZ BY JURY LOOMS

Corporation Commissioner Urges Investigation

Supervisor Says Cash Needed to Get Permits

action with the Tehachapex project, and that the company had given up the idea of selling securities and was selling the land direct now, under permit from the Real Estate Commissioner.

"I wrote Mr. Daugherty what I thought of the tactics of his office in delaying for months to issue the required permit, on one pretext or another, causing severe hardship and unnecessary expense," said the supervisor. "I have not yet received a reply to my letter, which was written two weeks ago. The answer given out by the commissioner has not come to my hand and I cannot comment on it."

The paragraph in the supervisor's letter to which the commissioner took exception read as follows: "I want to say frankly to you that I think this is a rotten deal and it makes me absolutely believe, as I have heard many times, that your office, or the men in your office, need to be paid in order to get permits."

REPLY IS BITTER
In reply the commissioner said the supervisor was either actuated by high moral desire to advise another public official there was graft in his department, or piqued because he was unable to capitalize his position to obtain special favors.

"Your charges in my opinion are absolutely false," the commissioner added.

The commissioner declared the Tehachapex Development Company had failed to pay the necessary fee, failed to furnish certificate of title, had asked permission to issue $100 units for "enhanced value" without furnishing evidence that the value had enhanced, and had failed to have a disinterested appraisal of its land.

Mr. Daugherty indicated he will welcome an investigation by the grand jury.

Mr. Daugherty's statement follows: "Hon. E. E. Woodley has written me charging that he believes stories he has heard—that it is necessary to pay graft to get permits through this office."

TIMELY AID SOUGHT
"I have asked the county grand jury to investigate this matter. I do not desire to make a personal fight out of this, but stories have been circulated from time to time and I figure disinterested inquiry would be for the good of all concerned."

"In order to assist the county grand jury, may I ask that through the columns of The Times, persons who have been solicited directly or indirectly by representatives of this office, employees of this office, or alleged agents of this office, to pay graft directly or indirectly, be asked to communicate immediately with the county grand jury and give all information possible."

MAX BEHR, WRITER, FINED

Arrested in Fist Fight at Party "In or Near" Pasadena Home of Mary Miles Minter

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Sept. 12.—A hilarious party during the wee small hours today in or near the home of Mary Miles Minter, motion-picture actress, brought Max Behr, magazine and scenario writer, into the Pasadena Police Court this afternoon. He was fined $100 on a charge of being intoxicated.

Behr previously had been brought to the Receiving Hospital much the worse for wear, together with Frank Hyde of New York, said to be a friend of the writer's. Police reported that the two men in a drunken condition had quarreled, and had inflicted considerable punishment on each other in a field encounter.

In Police Court Behr testified that he had been arrested at 2051 North Garfield avenue. But police aver that no such address exists, and that the battle royal occurred in or near Miss Minter's home at 2055 North Garfield avenue. This assertion was substantiated by a neighbor of Miss Minter's, who said a group of people had gathered there late last night in merrymaking mood, and had become increasingly noisy until police finally were called to stop the battle between Behr and Hyde.

Miss Minter today declared Mr. Behr had visited her house, but refused to discuss details of the battle scene.

TO CURB BRUTAL TRAINERS

American Animal Defense League is Organized Here to End Cruel Practices

Announcement of the organization of the American Animal Defense League for the purpose of combating cruelty in the training of animals for vaudeville, circus and motion-picture entertainments, was made yesterday by Mrs. Fannie Thompson Kessler, president of the league, with headquarters at 123 Bryson Building.

Other officers of the organization are: Mrs. Rosemond R. Wright, vice-president; George Wherton James, second vice-president; and Miss Selma Rich, secretary.

The intention of the founders of the league is to make the organization a wide in scope and a series of lectures throughout California by Mrs. Wright, who will speak under the auspices of the Federated Women's Clubs. The first lecture will be given at 2:30 p.m. on the 25th inst. at the Burbank Women's clubhouse.

INVESTIGATES STUDIOS

"I have been investigating the training of animals at various Los Angeles studios for the past three months, and have found that terrible cruelties are being inflicted on many of our dumb companions," said Mrs. Wright. "At one studio an elephant has been so greatly mistreated that he has naturally come to look upon man as his enemy and it should surprise no one to see him turn upon his persecutors at the first opportunity."

"Backed tightly and made to stand for hours at a time on a cement floor, with a deep gash over his head and one of his eyes out, this poor beast stands as a tragic example of his trainer's brutality," said Mrs. Wright. "When humanity must purchase amusement at the cost of torturing defenseless, speechless animals it is time to ask if our civilization is a force and our Christianity a failure."

"All the picture studios are not guilty of these crimes against an-

cludes $484 paid the Los Angeles Record, $662.20 paid the Los Angeles Evening Herald, $639 paid the Los Angeles Times, $100 paid the Los Angeles Eagle, $195 paid The Citizen, organ of organized labor, for advertising placed in these publications on June 2 and on June 4.

Attached to the appended complaint are photographs of some of these advertisements to sustain Mr. Mines' claim that the board was spending its revenues for propaganda in support of political ownership of hydroelectric power generating and distributing systems and violently attacking those who dared to oppose the proposals.

The amended complaint was filed by Mr. Mines' attorneys, Carroll Allen and Hunsaker, Britt & Cosgrove. It is expected that a few days after the commission and other officials named as defendants will file, through City Attorney Stephens and Special Assistant Attorney General, a demurrer to the complaint, and then the case will be argued in court.

It is unlikely that the case finally will reach the California Supreme Court for a final decision on the effect of the commission when it spends its revenues for purposes other than the actual operation, maintenance, extension and administration of public service enterprises under the commission's control. It is expected that the city's answer will be to the effect that the commissioners were justified in spending public funds for propaganda and political campaigning.

Mr. Mines said yesterday that he was not attacking the creditors in any way or of the city officials from the courts which would call a halt on this particular kind of misfeasance of public revenues by the Board of Public Service Commissioners.

LEAKS ALREADY STOPPED

Mr. Mines' suit and the other protests against the Public Service Commission's using its revenues for political propaganda has had the effect of already stopping one leak from power revenues, namely, the carrying out of the American Public Service Commission's resolution adopted on June 12, last, announcing its intention to sell $1500 a month from its revenues from June 12 until Congress meets next December to the Boulder Dam Association for publicity, lobbying and propaganda. The first check for $1000 was cashed by Mayor John L. Bacon, president of the Boulder Dam Association, and a strong supporter of the dam.

So the Public Service Commission scurried to cover and avoided a clash with the City Attorney's Boulder Dam resolution and neglecting to bend, so far as the city of Los Angeles is concerned, $1000 checks to Mayor Bacon for the Boulder Dam Association.

PLAN STREET WORK

Plans for street improvement in Brentwood Park will be discussed at a meeting of property owners in that district which will be held tomorrow night, at the Brentwood Country Club, under the auspices of the Brentwood Park Welfare Association. The meeting will be featured by addresses by several officials of the city of Los Angeles, who will talk on paving and park matters.

ASK BOARD TO LOCATE LOST ROAD

Aqua Dulce Highway Near Obliteration by Fencing for Herds of Goats

The Aqua Dulce highway appears to be lost, and it is up to the County Road Commissioners to find it. It seems that the highway, through being used as a pasture for goats and through having fences built across it, has become nearly obliterated. Residents in Aqua Dulce Canyon experience great difficulty in finding their way home.

It is unpleasant, they are agreed, to have to drive around a herd of goats and to get out of their cars to remove the real fence in every now and then appears in the way.

They appealed to the county road department.

Now the Board of Supervisors has placed a surveyor on the job. He will endeavor to locate the highway.

SHERIFF TO START DANCE

Sheriff William I. Traeger will start Ben Blue, well-known eccentric dancer who is appearing at Grauman's Million Dollar Theater, on his terpsichorean journey from Grauman's Hollywood to Grauman's Metropolitan Theater at 10 a.m. today. To prove that freak dancing is more strenuous than any other, Blue will attempt to dance from Hollywood to Los Angeles in two hours.

BUILDERS RALLY TONIGHT

The annual fall rally and first September meeting of the Southern California Chapter, Associated General Contractors of America, will be held at 6:15 p.m. today at the University Club, Hope street. There will be several important discussions, the topics including the outlook for the continued prosperity and boom of the construction industry of Los Angeles and Southern California.

WEDS IN KANSAS CITY

Fred W. Forrester, local real estate man, with offices at 440 South Broadway, obtained a license to wed Gwendolyn Edwards at Kansas City, Mo., Wednesday. According to friends here, the wedding was to take place last night. Miss Edwards is a native of Kansas City. The couple will return to Los Angeles in about three weeks. Mr. Forrester resides at 1121 South Lake Street.

WOLVERINES TO PICNIC

Former residents of the State of Michigan will gather at Sycamore Grove Park Saturday for their annual picnic, under direction of the Michigan Association of Southern California. Dr. M. R. Parmelee, president, announces that all the usual picnic features will be offered, and that city, county and township reunions will be held simultaneously.

GERTIE'S GARTER KNOTTY

Judge Will Unravel Problem With Final Decision on Friday; Prosecution Plans New Wars

Whether the pursuit of the dainty, delicate bit of elastic feminine knee-ware, the main prop in the farce comedy, "Gertie's Garter," is to continue in Los Angeles is to be determined Friday morning, when Police Judge James Pope is to render his decision on the charge that the play is obscene and indecent.

An hour's session of court yesterday was given over to arguments by City Prosecutor Jack Friedlander and Defense Attorney T. G. Scarborough, in which numerous authorities were cited. Judge Pope stated that his mind was practically made up concerning the facts in the case, but he postponed his decision until he had had an opportunity to read the many times indicated.

PLAY SUSPENDED

The defendants are Frank Hagin, producer of the play, and his cast, Misses Florence Priny, Hazel Buckham, Marjorie Bennett and Gwen Burroughs, and Messrs. Fred Cummings, William Burrows, Brady Kline, Frank Glendon, and Nathan Shindell. The play was suspended last week pending the outcome of the trial.

Very few of the defendants were in court yesterday, but Judge Pope stated that he wanted the entire number present Friday when the decision is announced.

UPHOLDS LINES

Mr. Scarborough, in his argument, declared that the situations and speeches in the play, which the prosecution insists are indecent and vulgar, are in no way out of the ordinary, and that nothing transpires upon the stage which is not in evidence upon the streets of the city.

In his plea to the court, Mr. Friedlander indicated that he intends waging war upon the producers of suggestive plays in Los Angeles in case he has a favorable decision upon which to base his campaign. He severely arraigned the producer and the cast for indulging what he termed indecent lines and business in order to provoke laughter from the audience.

The bureau will bring to Los Angeles a force of field agents well equipped with traffic information, which will make a thorough study of this and other Pacific Coast communities, and will devote its efforts to cutting down accidents and expediting traffic.

Celebrates His Birthday With Orphans' Party

Three hundred motherless and fatherless little girls enjoyed a grand party yesterday at Topanga Canyon as guests of Frank J. Hart, president of the Los Angeles orphan colony, who invited all the inmates of the Los Angeles orphan colony to his ranch to celebrate his birthday.

Early in the day automobiles called at the orphanage, and took the little ones for a long ride into the country. When they arrived at the Topanga ranch, they were met by a tall man with a tall hat, who pulled out a long string of rabbits, which he handed to the girls, who were delighted. The girls were then taken to a large hall, where they were served with a delicious meal of hot food, and then they were taken to a large hall, where they were served with a delicious meal of hot food, and then they were taken to a large hall, where they were served with a delicious meal of hot food.

The company is made up of former naval and military officers, who have dropped their usual work for the nonce to work as deck hands, stokers, oilers and cooks. The crew contributed $15,000 toward the trip, the remainder being made up by popular subscription in England.

The Frontiersman sailed from London, June 16, last, but turned back because of faulty engines, leaving there on June 28. Passing Madeira, Santa Lucia and through the Panama Canal, the yacht worked a leisurely way up the Pacific Coast to this port.

Solomon plans to make the picnic an annual affair, similar to the annual Christmas party, which he gives for Los Angeles new-boys.

Dewey Canyon and Diamond Creek on Grand River Urged for Relief

Dams to be built at Dewey Canyon and Diamond Creek along the Grand River would afford an excellent solution to the question of developing power from the Colorado River in Arizona, according to an opinion presented yesterday before the City Club by G. E. P. Smith, professor of irrigation engineering at the University of Arizona. Prof. Smith cited these two as key sites.

"In building a dam immediately for flood detention at the Dewey site," declared Prof. Smith, "together with the erection of a power plant having an initial capacity of 125,000 horsepower at Diamond Creek, the Imperial Valley would be afforded a measure of relief pending settlement of the Boulder Dam issue. I believe this proposal would have the backing of the Federal Power Commission."

Arizona's action in declining to ratify the pact containing the Boulder Creek project will not interfere seriously with the welfare of adjoining States, Prof. Smith declared.

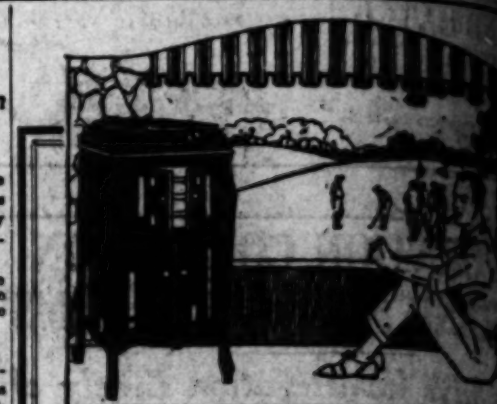

He said that what the legislators believed to be joking, the agreement had inclined them to vote against it. A solution to the problem, he declared, to this matter will probably not come for a long time, he averred.

Private Agency Declared Harm to All Schools

That private teachers' agencies are unnecessary and cause positive harm to the schools of the State by moving teachers from place to place annually, was the gist of testimony given yesterday by Mrs. May L. Chaney, appointment secretary of the Teachers' Placement Bureau of the University of California, Berkeley, in the hearing before Judge Burke in Superior Court on the constitutionality of the employment agency fee bill.

Mrs. Chaney said two teachers' bureaus of the university, one of Stanford, one of University of Southern California, one of Pomona, one of Mills and one each at six normal schools throughout the State, were amply able to take care of all the teachers in that they charged no fee. She declared the university examiners keep close tab on the work of teachers and form an accurate idea of their capabilities.

Edward C. Boynton of the Boynton Teachers' Agency of this city, declared, on the other hand, that teachers' agencies perform valuable services in determining the eligibility of teachers for various positions and that such work is not done by the free agencies. The case will continue today.

SCHOOL won't be school this year without Duofold

When 17 College Professors asked their classes, "What pen will you buy next?" nearly twice the number of pens named any other answered, "Parker!"

How about your sons and daughters, Parents? You can give them a happy surprise by getting the Duofold pen.

And you can't get a more economical pen. We guarantee its super-smooth point for 25 years' wear! For we pay you $2,000 a pound for its native iridium point. But it won't "break in"—no style of writing can distort it—no pen can wear it away!

With a black-tipped lacquer-red color—the Parker Duofold is hard to lose. With a balanced swing that the hand can't get away from, it's a pen that stimulates the student—it inspires study!

All good pen counters have it. The real thing is stamped—"Geo. S. Parker—DUOFOLD—Lucky Curve." Look carefully.

SCHOOL HEADS MAKING ROOM

Principals Bend Endeavors to Avoid Congestion

Teachers and Additional Space Are Needed

Pupils and Instructors Make Best of Situation

The combat with congestion in the city schools is being waged in earnest by officials of the Board of Education and principals at different buildings. All believe that within a brief period ample provision will be made to house the thousands of pupils, who desire admission.

As a city with unparalleled expansion, Los Angeles educators school influx with a great number have attempted to care for the additional buildings ranging from magnificent structures to temporary bungalows and in a number of cases, shacks and tents. Principals have been made to temporary structures with heating appliances to afford ample protection from the elements for pupils and teachers alike and all are stoically putting up with conditions as they exist during the emergency.

MORE PUPILS DUE

The Jewish New Year festival that is on this week is traced by officials for the holding back in enrollment of a considerable proportion of pupils whose entrance papers will be filed before the end of the first week.

Enrollment figures for the 1922-23 year based on cumulative computations were a total of 211,625 students in the elementary and high schools of the city, with an average daily attendance of 121,003, and there is every indication that during the present year these figures will be materially eclipsed.

On October 6, 1922 at the conclusion of the first month there was an enrollment of 146,646 pupils and in conservative estimates announced by officials yesterday the 1922-23 figure for the first month is 165,000.

MORE TEACHERS NEEDED

During the last term 5292 teachers were employed in the various branches of the city institutions and it is reported that when the rosters are completed 640 additional instructors will be needed to care for the increased number of pupils. Routine clearances got under way yesterday and teachers are following former channels until the new courses of study are outlined and released to be adopted with the idea of uniformity.

A new system is to be inaugurated this year in the matter of supplies required for the various institutions. In the past no formal requisition blank has been used, but it was learned yesterday that principals will be instructed to make request for their needs upon blanks direct to the superintendent's office, where they will be filled from a central distributing station.

"SOMEHOW or other the idea of a toad of Vinegar Bill is a ribald toad that spends his time around bar-rooms kicking the seats of people's pants up between their shoulder blades or disporting himself up and down these here beaches with such flappers as is available in them days."

Christmas Tree Charity Whistle of the Harque Hala mining region in Arizona, who is in Los Angeles to interest capital in his asserted gold claims, was taking yesterday of the remarkable reptile that several years ago is said to have been a protégé of Vinegar Bill of Yuma.

UPLIFTING TOAD

"Which is not the case, as you will see," Christmas continued. "As a matter of fact Bill's toad is one of the most public-spirited citizens to be found anywhere in the Territory in them days and some of his deeds win him the name of being the most up-liftingest uplifter in the community."

"I see a piece in The Times the other day that reminds me all over again of what the story books call a thrilling chapter in the life of Bill's toad."

"Here is the way the play comes up. A short time before the outbreak of the Civil War I am very busy running a stage station for Maj. Russell and Wendell. A freighting outfit about as well known in them days as the Southern Pacific is now.

"Even in them days it seems to me the people back yonder have gone California crazy and it is the chiefest duty of our outfit to get people to California as quickly and with as much profit to ourselves as possible."

RUSHING MAILS

"Aside from the stage coach business no little part of our endeavor is aimed at the getting of the eastern mail to these news-hungry gold camps as quickly as the best saddle stock and the biggest bunch of top-hand riders then alive can do the job."

"We get word a week or so ahead that President Lincoln is to make an address to Congress on a certain day and that a big try is to be made by the company to get the word to the coast in record-busting time. We are to be all set to go at any time, day or night, our instructions are, and the sack with the President's message may be expected to arrive at our station about a certain day."

"Well, we gets all ribbed up to go. We switches around, pro and con like, so as to have the best saddle stock in the corral for about the time we look for the President's speech. We even lays off a particularly good hand and keeps him loafing around the corral for a week so as to get the sack through our territory as quick as may be."

"And then one night a bunch of them stinking White Mountain Apaches comes yelping down out of the hills and runs off the stock. In the fracas I gets a arser into me right here where I wears my chewing tobacco and this here track rider that hasn't done anything but lay around for a week is all killed up."

WAIT FOR RIDER

"Well, by sun-up I gets the arser pulled out of me so I can set down and with the place all cleaned up again there ain't much left to do but wait for the first rider to come in so's we can send word on to the next station to get us some stock."

"Naturally Bob and I talks some about what we will do if the rider with the President's message comes in but both of us agrees that it is plumb unreasonable to expect him for two-three days more."

"And then, about the middle of the morning, who do we see coming down across the flat but Bill's Bill Howell. We ain't see Bill's for more than a week and we hear that the station to the east has done the same thing we have done—sawed up their best rider and stock for the big day."

"You've guessed it, all right. This is the sack. And here we are without a horse to our name and only one man in the outfit that ain't all hurt up and him 60 years old."

"To use a somewhat inelegant expression, the calf is out."

"There isn't a thing in the corral that can creep, crawl or slide but an old bicycle that Bob sends back East for soon after he joins up with the outfit some years back but which he never has been able to use much account of the country being somewhat sandy and pleasure-riding of any sort some-more of Bill, seeing that he's come all the way from Sacaton since daylight.

"Me, being a stockman all my life and not knowing a thing about machinery, it is not reasonable to expect me to go anywhere on that contraption of Anderson's."

"And Anderson, coming from Georgia, is not likely to put himself out none to go purveying about the world, the sayings of any Northerner, even if he is the President of the United States."

"As you story writers say, we are in a pretty dilemma."

"But, it's when he's drunk or in a fight that a man's insides comes out and you can see what he's made of."

"Bob's speech is reasonable and to the point. For the time being he will forget Georgia and her differences with President Lincoln. Temporarily it is the honor and the integrity and the reputation of the Majors, Russell and Wendell stage outfit against the world, or at least that part of it as is molested by them White Mountain Apaches."

"With that he grabs up the saddle bags and untangles the old bicycle from a mess of hames and horse shoes where it has been thrown and sets out."

"When he has gone about a hundred yards he looks back and waves his hand. Just then the danged thing's hind end rears up in the air and Bob is pitched right off into a clump of cactus. It seems his long whiskers is caught, excuse me, I mean ketched, in the front wheel. It certainly is terrible, especially after such a fine speech."

"We run down and picks Bob up and untwines his whiskers from stood to this day."

PORT BOATS GO SOUTH TO CATCH TUNA

Schooner and Tender Accompany Them Along Mexican Coast

Fifty boats of the port fishing fleet, conveyed by the schooner Oceania Vance and the motorship Angel, tenders, headed south today for Cerros Island and Sebastian Vizcaino Bay, 500 miles distant on the Mexican coast. Great schools of yellow-fin tuna are reported running on the banks in the vicinity.

Albacore catches by the fleet working on the banks off Santa Cruz and Santa Rosa islands have been unusually light during the past fortnight and the activities of these vessels will also be transferred to Mexican waters, cannery and fishermen declare.

Crews of three local fishing smacks which reached port from Turtle Bay and Cerros Island last night report the waters virtually alive with yellow fin, the first heavy run after an unusually slack season.

DUSTY RHODES HAS SON

Fourth Child Born at Home of Noted Trail Marker

Robert Reuben Rhodes arrived in Los Angeles yesterday while his father is busily engaged in charting highway conditions between this city and New York, in behalf of the Auto Club of Southern California.

In other words, D. C. Rhodes, better known as "Dusty," head of the famous sign-posting department of the Auto Club, was notified yesterday that he has become a father for the fourth time. The latest arrival in the Rhodes family is to be christened Robert Reuben after his grandfather.

Robert Reuben arrived at 5023 Roosevelt avenue, Hollywood, lastly yesterday and weighed eight and three-quarters pounds. Mr. Rhodes was notified at Salt Lake City, where he is enroute to New York City, recharting the Lincoln Highway and the National Old Trails for a new set of signposts to be erected by the Auto Club.

DRUGGIST ARRESTED ON DRY LAW CHARGE

W. B. Conner, who operates the Union Square Pharmacy, 2214 South Union avenue, and his clerk, M. A. Delbis, were arrested yesterday charged with violating the Volstead law. This is the second time Conner has been in trouble with the prohibition enforcement officers, they assert. It is charged that Conner had no permit allowing him to dispense liquor; that he had twenty pints of moonshine in stock, and that he was guilty of making a sale in defiance of law. The bond was fixed at $10,000.

Glendale

Tuesday Afternoon Club
Architecturally a triumph and significant evidence of profits to be made in Glendale Real Estate.

A stately Colonial House in Glendale's devoted residential section with a marvelous view of city and valley.

Southern California at its best

FABULOUS profits, vigorous growth, up-to-the minute civic improvements and a general atmosphere of prosperity and happiness are immediately suggested by the very name of Glendale.

Everything that Southern California stands for; rapidly increasing property values, superb natural beauties, and abundant opportunities for success in building a business or founding a new home are here; made doubly pleasant by an endless succession of perfect days.

For Glendale today, after three years of record-breaking growth, is a city complete in every detail, still expanding faster than ever but with a nucleus of well established institutions already here to build upon, a city with an assured future; and at the same time a city that will satisfy your every need and every cultural requirement of your family now.

Business men with interests in Los Angeles like to live in Glendale because of its convenient location in the heart of the great metropolitan area, with quick convenient transportation facilities and broad unobstructed highways leading direct to the down-town section.

Mothers of growing families like to live in Glendale because of the unequalled school facilities and the congenial social life of this thoroughly American community.

Nothing more accurately reflects both the cultural life and the rapid progress of Glendale today than the achievement of one of its foremost women's clubs in building the unusually complete and artistic club house pictured above. Three lots on Brand Boulevard were purchased for a club site in June 1920 for $6,250.00. In December 1921 these same lots were sold for $30,000.00 net cash, realizing a profit of more than $23,000.00 enough to justify immediate construction of the present beautiful structure.

The same opportunities exist here today for you, with the added advantage of a complete city already established providing every requirement for a full and happy life in one of the most beautiful spots in all the Southland.

Come to Glendale today, come for a short visit only if you prefer, come for a month or more if you can, BUT COME. Twenty-nine thousand other visitors in the last three years have come to Glendale to stay.

START HUNT FOR ROSHON'S WIVES

Search for Five Spouses to be Nation-Wide

Son of Des Moines Victim Demands Action

Police Fail to Connect Him With Women Here

Local police authorities, aided by the District Attorney's office and agents from the Department of Justice, yesterday began a country-wide search for five of the seven wives admitted by Harry R. Roshon, man of many aliases and wiles, now being held in the City Jail on charges of bigamy. If the five missing wives are not found, more serious charges are being lodged against Roshon before he is returned to Warren, O., to answer to a charge of bigamy.

Tuesday afternoon Roshon, in a signed statement made to the District Attorney, told of marrying seven different women without having divorced any of them. He stated that all of the women were married in the State of California. He also declared that he had intended marrying others in this State when he was arrested.

WARRANT IN IOWA

Yesterday the local police were notified by the police of Des Moines, Iowa, that a warrant had been held in that city for the love-monger. A second warrant is also believed to be held by the police of Montgomery, Lynch, director of the passion play which is being given in the Coliseum. Tuesday and last night's performances were postponed because of the unexpectedly damp weather. It is now planned to give three performances next week.

RAIN UNFORTUNATE

"The rain came at a most unfortunate time for the play," said Merle Armitage, business manager, yesterday. "It did not ruin us, however. We are going to give the play and give the public the seven performances promised. All that was suffered through the rain was the inconvenience to patrons who had planned to attend performances that were forced to be postponed, and the money they had paid for the tickets for a few more days. We are genuinely sorry for this, but we must give the play."

ACTED AT ONCE

Vernon Roshon acted immediately when informed that Roshon, who married Mrs. Roshon, was apprehended in Los Angeles. Fearful that his former stepmother would be charged with bigamy, Roshon hurried to the home of Judge A. E. Merham late Tuesday night and the judge issued an order to have the fugitive held until a warrant could be issued in municipal court yesterday, according to Des Moines advices.

SIGNED OVER STOCKS

From Spokane, Wash., it was learned that Mrs. Alma E. Schneider married Roshon in Couer d'Alene, Idaho, on November 3, 1928. She lost to have lost $1000 in stocks and bonds which she signed over to her husband.

DELIVERED TO THE POLICE

Letters addressed to "General Delivery" will be delivered at the windows, as usual, but Uncle Sam has abandoned the job of hunting addresses for careless correspondents. The directories that have been in existence for years in the local office, and which are handled daily and constantly changed, have been abolished by orders from the Postmaster-General. The girls have been placed in the distribution work, and thus relieve the congestion in that part of the local postoffice work.

DEAD LETTER OFFICE

Hereafter all letters received addressed simply "Los Angeles" will be searched for in the city directories. If the address is not found there, they will be sent to the Dead Letter office. This means that unless there is a radical improvement in the methods of letter writers, not more than 40,000 missives a year will be sent from Los Angeles to the port of missing letters.

CARELESSNESS COSTLY

The ordinary city directories wear out their usefulness in the location of addresses in a short time, where the floating population is concerned. Then recourse must be had to the directories kept up at the postoffice by the Postoffice Department, where a corps of clerks make it their daily business to enter every new address, and keep track of thousands of changes. That will now be a thing of the past.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL NEW

has made up his mind that it is no business of the government to care for people who think so little for the safety of their mail, as to neglect to place the street and number on their letters.

FOLLETTE CASE IS ARGUED

Jury Expected to Begin Deliberations Late Today; Defense Counsel Makes Plea

Final arguments in the case of Justice Channing Follette, on trial before Judge Regue and a jury on a charge of forgery, will be heard today and it is expected the case will be in the jury's hands during the afternoon. Taking of testimony ended yesterday, and the first arguments were made by Dep. Dist. Atty. Van Cott and by H. L. Geisler, defense counsel.

Mr. Van Cott dwelt in his argument on the testimony of handwriting experts that Justice Follette wrote the names George and Ruth Allen on slips of paper tied up with a loaf of bread containing $700, which it is asserted the justice left in a Broadway drug store as a bribe for investigator Riemer of the District Attorney's staff.

'WAYFARER' PLAYS TONIGHT

Management Says Seven Performances Promised Will Be Given, Despite Rain

"The Wayfarer" will go on his way down the path of the centuries again tonight unless a continuance of the rain forces him to seek refuge once more. This was announced yesterday by Montgomery Lynch, director of the passion play which is being given in the Coliseum. Tuesday and last night's performances were postponed because of the unexpectedly damp weather. It is now planned to give three performances next week.

RAIN UNFORTUNATE

"The rain came at a most unfortunate time for the play," said Merle Armitage, business manager, yesterday. "It did not ruin us, however. We are going to give the play and give the public the seven performances promised. All that was suffered through the rain was the inconvenience to patrons who had planned to attend performances that were forced to be postponed, and the money they had paid for the tickets for a few more days. We are genuinely sorry for this, but we must give the play."

LETTER WRITERS WARNED

Postoffice Will Not Waste Time Seeking Persons to Whom Missives Are Inaccurately Addressed

By an order just received by Postmaster O'Brien, the government is to be relieved of the annual expense of $100,000, at the Los Angeles postoffice that has for years been spent for the sole advantage of careless letter writers.

FREIGHT CAR SHORTAGE IS COMBATTED

Demurrage Bureau Opens Campaign for Penalties Against Delays

In an effort to overcome as far as possible the constantly recurring shortage of freight cars, especially in the harvest season, the Pacific Car Demurrage Bureau has begun a campaign to restore the 15-day demurrage charge on all cars and to eliminate the average agreement rule.

MUST SUPPORT CHILD

Broken Arm No Bar to Paying for Boy's Keep, Says Judge

Another romance was shattered yesterday when Cecilia Clarke Harper, artist's model and dancer, appeared in Judge Guerri's department of the Superior Court and asked that her husband, Douglas D. Harper, son of a Los Angeles automobile dealer, be compelled to support her and their 3-year-old child.

Examinations for positions with the County of Los Angeles will be conducted by the Civil Service Commission at Room 1007 in the Hall of Records on the 19th and 20th inst., and on October 4, 5, 6 and 10, according to the commission. The examinations are for the purpose of establishing eligible lists for the positions of Chief Deputy County Treasurer, clerk, County Farm division of the department of charities; stenographer, reporter, and two deputy probation officers; warden, County Hospital, and washerman, County Hospital. Applications must be filed with the commission, and sworn to before the commission or a notary.

UNIFORM RAIL RATE IS SOUGHT

Harbor Interests Request Immediate Action; Board Gives Approval

Uniform rail rates to all points at Los Angeles Harbor will be sought by the Los Angeles Harbor Board. At that body's meeting yesterday afternoon, it was voted to take up the matter at once. The board's action was evoked by appeals from harbor interests.

For several years efforts have been made by interests at the Harbor through the Chamber of Commerce to obtain the uniform rates, but for some reason the matter has never been brought to a successful issue. It is the contention of the Harbor Board that shipping forms should be made out to Los Angeles Harbor, which terminals would include East San Pedro and Wilmington. Thus all rates would read to some destination and be uniform.

It was suggested at the meeting that all railroads running to points at the Harbor be called into conference in an endeavor to have them agree on the change. Need of this would be eliminated by the construction of the long-discussed belt line, over which freight would be shipped from a central point to any place in the port. It was pointed out that the completion of the belt line will probably be five years in the future. Confidence was expressed by all members of the board that the various railroads would co-operate in the matter and be uniform.

Efforts will also be made by the board, it was decided, to obtain space for the use of small and independent lumber companies for the transferring and temporary storage of lumber. C. J. Golden, member of the board, was the member who presented the proposition. He pointed out that while at present large companies rent space to smaller concerns, the available room is not sufficient. It was his contention that such an old established and permanent trade of the port should be accorded every possible assistance.

'DOROTHY' START NEAR

MARY PICKFORD CHOOSES
HER GOWNS AND PLAYERS

By Grace Kingsley

The official start for "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall" is scheduled for the 17th inst. This information came yesterday from the Pickford-Fairbanks Studios, where Mary Pickford was completely surrounded and engulfed in a pile of costumes of the early Elizabethan period.

Preparation is now 40 per cent
complete, according to Starline Ford, production manager. The first set, a replica of the banquet hall
of Haddon Hall, is now practically finished and the costumes are now being made. Each of the five principals in the cast will wear
from five to eight costumes.

Four houses are now being trained for their parts, and both Mr. Ford and W. W. Kerrigan, business manager, are scouring the country for 400 more. The set houses now being sought are merely extras, says Ford, the others being members of filmstar's equine aristocracy.

Under supervision of Mary and Mickey Neilan, who is again directing this gem of the golden curie, casting is going merrily on. Clara Bames is coming from Italy, where she is traveling with her husband, to play Queen Elizabeth, a role in which she is famous. Mrs. Carrie Daumery has just been engaged to play Lady Vernon, and Eric Mayne
has signed as the Earl of Rutland.

Lettie Pickford, who has not appeared with her famous sister
since the old Biograph days, will be Jenny Faxton, and Allan Forrest
will be seen in the dashing role of Sir John Manners, the leading male part.

Many of the sets are being built from photographs of Haddon Hall,
which Edward Knoblock made in England and brought to this country last year. This work is under the direction of H. W. Russell, while Mitchell Leisen is designing the costumes, undoubtedly the most gorgeous Mary has ever appeared in.

Twenty-five different sets will be built for "Dorothy Vernon," three of them castles, the battle of Rutland, to capture Queen Mary,
will be repeated for the picture,
and the reception of Queen Elizabeth will present one of the most spectacular scenes ever shown.

Four coaches are now under construction, one of them a replica of one of the first carriages ever used in England. These and many other features promise to make this photograph the most spectacular in which Mary Pickford has ever appeared.

JOHN B. O'BRIEN TO MAKE OWN PICTURES

And now John B. O'Brien is about to unveil his own. His pictures, undoubtably, will be well known as John B. O'Brien Productions.

O'Brien's first independently
made picture will be called "Superstition," from a story written by L. W. Young, under the title of "Trapped."

The Pyramus and Thisbe of picturedom, John Bowers and Marjorie, are in the picture, and the leading roles. John Norton was to have played the feminine lead,
but he has been taken ill and has gone to the mountains for rest.

Other prominent players in the cast are Joseph Dowling, Martha Marshall, Spottiswoode Aitken, Sheldon Lewis, Edward Burns,
Claire McDowell, Cesare Gravina
and Grace Gordon.

A big three-masted schooner has been chartered, and the company
is now making a three-week cruise off Catalina and Lower California, filming scenes.

Priscilla Moran Gets Job

Little Priscilla Dean Moran, whose daddy decided he just couldn't do without her, even though Jack Coogan had been wonderful and offered to adopt her, is coming right along with her picture career.

She has signed up for a nice
part in "Daddies," which the Warner Brothers are making, and seems all set for a career.

Mildred Davis Again Soon

Looks as though Mildred Davis
in private life Mrs. Harold Lloyd is again taking her place as film light. She has just received a nice offer from one of the big companies, the name of which she won't disclose, however, until everything is all settled, and Harold Lloyd has given her his blessing.
"Harold has been very kind and big-minded in the matter," said Mrs. Lloyd yesterday. "He would prefer I think that I should stay out of pictures, but when this big offer came along, and he saw that I really did love the thing, he so much and wanted to go, he said that he didn't want to stand in the way of my best success and happiness."

Henry Walthall on Stage

Henry Walthall is to return to the stage with his wife, Mary Charleson, next November, according to his present plans. In the meantime, he is to keep with his picture work. He has been engaged for an important role in Allen Holubar's current production.
The star achieved so much success in his little post-war playlet,
in which he appeared here at the Orpheum and throughout the Middle West and South that he may continue in it, especially as he did not play the Keith time in the East, though invited to do so.

Now he has two plans in view—
either he will play the big eastern
time or he will use a new playlet, having narcotics as a theme, which he has just purchased.

"However, I do not know how the vaudeville managers will feel regarding the drug theme," said Walthall yesterday. "The playlet is excellent, but it is possible there may be some objection to the subject."

Von Stroheim Entertains

Erle Von Stroheim is to go to the Big Dipper mines in Colfax, Fleecer county, to complete his picture, "McTeague." He will leave today with members of his company, including his cameoman and Gibson Gowland, who plays the leading male role, together with a number of players who are doing bits in the picture.

These scenes will be the final ones, and cutting and titling are to begin at once.

The Goldwyn director has just returned from Death Valley with his players, and yesterday entertained at a studio luncheon some fifty members of the Los Angeles press. He explained that his reason for going to Death Valley was in order to give realism to his picture, not only photographically,

but to inspire his players with a real sense of the hardships and difficulties and discomforts of the trip. In order that they might convey something vital in this respect that they could not convey otherwise.

While D. W. Griffith was making
"Hearts of the World" in Europe, said Von Stroheim, "he got lost in the trenches during a battle,
and he actually secured a shot of a man killed in battle. The man died in his arms, and he was so dead that he could not be moved.
"When it came to be shown on the screen that tragedy looked like a Keystone stunt! So Griffith had to go out on the studio lot, when he got home, and get a ham actor
to do a professional death scene.
"But I'm hoping we shan't have to resort to the salt-peter on the Goldwyn lot to substitute for some of the scenes, and I don't believe we shall, though there is a mist on the desert that we had to combat
all the time.

"It was an uncomfortable trip,
but there were no real mishaps.
We saw a couple of rattlers and a few three-foot poisonous lizards,
but kept out of their way."

Jane Novak Busy

Jane and Eva Novak, who have been lent to Metro by Chester Bennett for Victor Schertzinger's production of "The Man Whom Life Pampered By," are getting together for a new picture, "The Girl Who Lived," which is being made at Universal City under his direction.

Charlie Murray Is It

With the selection of Charlie Murray for an important role in
"My Mamie Rose," Irving Cummings has added another stellar light to the cast of the picture.

Mary Philbin's initial starring vehicle, now in production at Universal City under his direction,
is "The Girl Who Lived," which includes Pat O'Malley, Buster Collier, Max Davidson, Kate Ryan, Edwin J. Brady and Lincoln
Plumer.

Now It's Leaky, Jr.

Turn about is fair play, and James L. Leaky, Jr., saw no reason if Doug Fairbanks, Jr., could obtain a job as an actor in his dad's studio, why he himself should not get a job at Doug Fairbanks's
studio.

Young Leaky told his dad, the
other day, that he wanted to go
into pictures. His dad said nothing doing, or words to that effect. Then
young Leaky persisted, and finally
secured his father's consent but on
the understanding the boy wasn't to use his father's name. The elder Leaky then proceeded to forget
all about the matter, not dreaming
the boy could or would go on with
the thing.

But it seems the young Leaky
inherits his father's cleverness and persistence. He went over to Fair-banks's studio, didn't tell his name,
but asked for a job as an extra
in "The Thief of Bagdad." He did not get one at once, but he kept at it for a week, and at last he obtained the coveted engagement, all on his own.
Not only that, but he proved so clever, that Director Harold Walsh picked him out for a bit.

Anna May Wong's Club

You haven't quite arrived nowadays, if you are a picture actress, no matter how many babies
and nut-sundae have been named for you, unless some city starts a club bearing your name.

The newest actress to claim the honor of having such a club named for her is Anna May Wong. Club Club has been organized among her youthful admirers of both sexes.

TURPIN'S SHOES PUZZLE REPAIRER

A few days ago Ben Turpin asked one of the property men on the set to take him to a shoe repair shop to have the soles more securely fastened to the uppers. Said proprietor took them to a little cobbler's close by the studio
and left them with instructions.

No sooner had the messenger left than a job as an actor in his father's studio, why he himself should
not get a job at Doug Fairbanks's
studio.

Young Leaky told his dad, the
other day, that he wanted to go
secured his father's consent but on
the understanding the boy wasn't to

Leaky then proceeded to forget
all about the matter, not dreaming
the boy could or would go on with
the thing.

But it seems the young Leaky
inherits his father's cleverness and
persistence. He went over to Fair-

PLAYDOM

TWO-A-DAY OUT

CONTINUOUS SHOWS

By Edwin Schallert

Decision has been made in favor of the continuous run policy instead of the two-a-day, which now seems in prospect quite generally,
by Sid Grauman for his theater at Third and Broadway. This will mean that exactly the same arrangement of program as is now being used for the showing of "The White Rose," will remain in force, and it is largely owing to the popularity of that attraction
which will go into its third week, Monday, that the decision was made.

The management of the house had even gotten so far as to announce a two-a-day policy, but that has been definitely abandoned in favor of the continuous showings.
This will eliminate the reserved seats, but the theater manager is saying that the present policy will prove more satisfactory at the theater.

The first attraction following "The White Rose," will be "The Courtship of Miles Standish," in which Charles Ray is the star.

Edwin Kelly at Leaky's

A unique combination of talent will be seen in "The Ladies," the production which Famous Players
Leaky will next assign to James Cruse as director. The leading female role will be played by Helen Jerome Eddy. This follows the news that Edward Horton will appear as the masculine lead. The filming of the picture will start in about a week.

Cost Esther Halston

"The Marriage Circle," which Ernest Lubitch is filming, will have Esther Halston as a member of the cast. She was secured through arrangement with the Universal organization by Warner Brothers.

Lead for Viola

Milton Mills will play opposite Viola Dana in "Angel Face Molly," the crock story which she is making for the Metro organization. The picture is being directed by Oscar Apfel.

A Hughes Vacation

Rupert Hughes will have no vacation following "Law Against Law," the picture which he has just finished for Goldwyn. He will devote his leisure to preparing a new film story, writing a novel, a few short stories and some articles,
as well as attending to various business matters that require his attention.

Fair Barbara Has Many Roles to Her Credit

Barbara La Marr, who has returned to New York City following the completion of her work in the "Eternal City" in Italy, has the unique distinction of having appeared in leading roles for practically every producer of importance in the motion-picture industry.

Since her rise to stellar honors
Miss La Marr, in the space of less than a year, has appeared in feature roles for the following producers: Louis B. Mayer, Goldwyn, MGM, Fox, Goldwyn, Fox, Fox, Douglas Fairbanks Pictures Corporation and others.

She has been seen in the following pictures: "The Brass Bottle," "Strangers of the Night,"
"Souls at Sea," "Trifling with Women," "Prisoner of Zenda,"
"The Eternal City," "St. Elmo,"
"Quincy Adams Sawyer," "Poor Wives," "The Three Musketeers" and others.

Upon her return to Hollywood at the end of this month she will play in "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," which she will be seen in the featured role of "The Lady Knows as Lou."

MUSICIANS AID IN DRAMA PRODUCTIONS

The music department of the Wallis School of Dramatic Art is furnishing gypsy feature numbers
at every entertainment given by the school either at the weekly concerts in "Review" in Wallis Hall or in the Denishawn Theater. Pupils of Georgia Wright Leakey, pianist, Alexander Palmer, violinist, and Lucy E. Wolcott, vocalist, appear on every program in addition to the dramatic work in plays and sketches by the students' stock companies.

Tonight, Friday, and Saturday night's companies of advanced students will present three plays:
"The Poker Play Company" for an
I.O.O.F. society in Pasadena; "Up the Air," a three-act comedy, for a lodge society in South Pa-dena and a one-act comedy for a church society in the city. Friday night the regular "Review" entertainment will be given in Wallis Hall.

Councilmen in Trouble for Giving Speech Right

Use of City Auditorium is Principal Objection

Legion Chief Strongest in Denouncing Socialist

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
LONG BEACH, Sept. 12.—A storm such as never before swirled around the heads of the City Council members was brewing here today.

It threatens to burst momentarily as a result of the action of these members of the Council yesterday in granting Eugene V. Debs the use of the Municipal Auditorium for a political speech on the 21st inst. Threats against the Council for its act were heard today, and the threats ran the gamut from injunction to restrain Debs from speaking to threats of resignation on the part of members of the auditorium committee.

COMMITTEE THREATENS

Summons of withdrawal from the Community Hospital committee, a pet project of Councilman Filmer Condit, also was heard. Conditman W. H. McCoy, father of the acquiescence that permits Debs to use a municipal building here, and Councilman Condit and Frank N. Downes, who put the motion over in the absence of the remaining three members of the Council yesterday, came in for a large share of criticism by members of patriotic organizations and business men of the city, for reverting the edict of the Council against Debs several weeks ago.

Speaking in the name of the American Legion of California, self James Collins, State Commander today, "permit me to say that the fifth annual convention of the department of California at Eureka emphatically voted its disapproval of the use of public buildings by men or women who during our national emergencies have used their best efforts to break the morale of our people at home and abroad in the service of wartime establishment."

WAR REFERRED TO

"We do not deny Debs, the Socialist, or Debs, the politician, the right to speak, but we do oppose the granting of the right to speak in a public building to Debs, the obstructionist, who during the hour of our country's greatest need attempted to defeat the best efforts of our people in their ordeal in defending to a successful end our right for national honor."

"We contend that Debs has repudiated the fundamental principles of our country by his refusal to abide by the will of the majority when the need was greatest."

BOAT OWNERS HUNTED

Police Think Wrecked Craft May Belong to Smugglers

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
VENICE, Sept. 12.—That a wrecked motor launch which washed ashore on the beach at the Key San Antonio, Venice, belonged to a gang of liquor or narcotic smugglers is the belief of local police who investigated yesterday. The boat was heavily laden with provisions but all evidence of ownership was lacking, according to the officers.

A boat answering the description of the one found is known to have been operating off of the coast more than a month ago. At that time, smugglers shot a night watchman at El Segundo and escaped. Since that time a mysterious craft has been plying along the coast directing signals at persons on the shore believed to be in league with the smugglers.

Police are continuing their investigation in an endeavor to prove the ownership of the small craft.

HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER
UNDERGOES OPERATION

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
ORANGE, Sept. 12.—George A. Campbell, woodwork instructor at Orange High School, is in a serious condition at an Ocean Park hospital following a major operation performed Saturday, according to word received here by F. A. Henderson, principal of the school.

Campbell, who had been spending the summer with his son at Larchmont, was suddenly stricken by an attack of appendicitis, necessitating immediate operation. While hopes are held out for his recovery, his condition is reported to be serious. Arrangements have been made at the school to have his work taken care of during his absence.

THREE INJURED WHEN
AUTO STRIKES POST

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
SANTA MONICA, Sept. 12.—Harriet Lingenfelder, Euclid avenue, this city, and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Haverstick of 1111 Cabrillo canal, Venice, were seriously injured when the automobile in which they were riding struck a post and overturned on the Malibu road north of the city early this morning. The injured persons were brought to police headquarters by a passing motorist and given emergency treatment. The machine, according to police, was demolished.

TO BE OBTAINED PRIEST

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
VENTURA, Sept. 12.—Richard Langdon, who for some time has served as lay reader at St. Paul's Episcopal Church here, will be ordained Friday evening. Bishop Johnson will come here to conduct the ceremony. Mr. Langdon is a former Oxford student and was prepared for the church some years ago, but had never taken orders.

Man in Inebriated State
Tells Police He Gazed
Too Long at Sun

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
VENICE, Sept. 12.—When T. L. Hayward of Los Angeles was arrested in an inebriated condition last night, according to police, he explained he was not under the influence of liquor, but was still suffering from the effects of gazing at the eclipse of the sun too long.

Hayward explained to Officer Iler during the march to the City Jail that it was only once in more than a century that a man had the right to see so grand a spectacle, but that he had been a too ardent witness.

EXHIBITS OF CHAMBER TO BE SHIFTED

Bakersfield Also to Close Los Angeles Office in Interest of Economy

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 12.—After considerable discussion by Supervisors yesterday as to the disposition of the $15,000 provided in the budget to maintain a chamber of commerce, a motion introduced by Supervisor Stanley Abel to transfer the Chamber of Commerce exhibit at an early date to a room in the Courthouse was approved.

The services of Colonization Agent R. O. Evans, who has been acting secretary of the chamber for two months, will continue until the 15th inst. Mr. Evans reported on the outcome of the county exhibit at the State Fair, showing pictures of Kern County's display. He has left for Los Angeles, where he will close the office there.

The need of a chamber secretary to supervise the moving of exhibits to the Courthouse was discussed. Supervisor Williams held that the retention of a man was necessary. Mr. Evans, however, declared that he would not favor the appointment of a secretary unless the candidate would give more consideration to farmers.

URGE SUPPORT OF MOTOR ACT

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
PASADENA, Sept. 12.—Appealing to the Pasadena City Board of Directors to uphold the new State Motor Vehicle Law that went into effect the 1st inst., which City Manager Kolner has openly declared will not be recognized in Pasadena, the Pasadena Motor Car Dealers Association today presented resolutions to the directors asking that the law be enforced.

The association further expressed considerable disfavor to the stand the City Manager for not giving the new law a fair trial. The law specifically states that there shall be no speed traps and that plainclothes officers shall not arrest traffic violators.

WILL DEFY LAW

City Manager Kolner recently declared that this law would make detection and arrest of criminals impossible and that Pasadena would continue to use the speed
traps in defiance of the new State act.

This declaration from the city's chief executive brought a storm of protests. The Automobile Club
of Southern California took exception to Pasadena's action and sent several letters of protest to the City Manager.

OLD LAW UNSATISFACTORY

The association laid particular stress on the fact that the new law
was known that the old law was not satisfactory and that accidents
were increasing with great rapidity
because of the new law.

The association further expressed disfavor to the stand the City Manager for not giving the new law a fair trial.The resolutions as adopted by the Motor Car Dealers' Association
asked that the new law be carried out exactly as written. They requested that the new act be given a fair and impartial trial.SANTA ANA'S SCHOOL ENROLLMENT HIGHER

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
SANTA ANA, Sept. 12.—Santa Ana's school enrollment is already 644 greater than upon the opening of school last year, according to records made available
today by Superintendent J. A.
Cranston, and the increase is expected to reach an additional 200
before the school year closes.

The increase was tabulated as follows: Elementary schools, increase of 331; high school, increase of 215; junior college, in-

The postoffice for a time looked like a furniture store.Some of the articles weighed the limit of seventy pounds.All were delivered to the sender here promptly.

SENATOR IN PHOENIX

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
PHOENIX, Sept. 12.—United States Senator Ralph H. Cameron
is in Phoenix for a short stay, coming via California. He is interested in plans for the development of water power on the Colorado River, with hopes for support by the national government.

CHARTER DRAFT

Change in Form of Fresno Government Urged

Renaming of Main Street of City Proposed

Allow Claims of "Dry" Stool
Pigeon Director

FRESNO, Sept. 12.—To bring to a head a movement to give Fresno county a charter form of government, E. L. Evans of Selma, president of the Fresno County Association of Chambers of Commerce, yesterday suggested the formation of a league for the study of the question.

His suggestion was made in a letter to the members of the association, with a request that the matter be taken up for action at a meeting in Fresno October 5.
Prospects for early action leading up to the drafting of a charter are seen, moreover, in numerous public statements made lately
by persons in many parts of the county, the great majority of the expressions being in favor of an immediate change from the present form of government.

WOULD CHANGE NAME

J street, Fresno's principal thoroughfare, is again a storm center.

A petition that its name be changed to Fulton avenue will be presented at the next meeting of the City Commission, according to an announcement, by E. F. Lacour, pioneer hotel man. He said the petition has been signed by some 200 property owners, including most of the important holders of realty on the street.

The proposed name was chosen
in memory of the late Fulton G.
Berry, who owned the famous old Grange Central Hotel here, and here, was once the commodore of the San Francisco Yacht Club and was for many years one of the picturesque figures of the State.There is now before the Commission an ordinance that would change the name of J street to Harding avenue.CLAIMS OF ANDREW TADLOCK, former chief of the "stool pigeon"
group employed by the county in liquor cases, were yesterday
approved by Dist. Atty. George R.
Loveloy and forwarded to the County Board of Supervisors for passage. They total $556 and represent sums Tadlock earned as an informant in bootlegging cases.Tadlock's work recently was declared illegal in a ruling by State Atty.-Gen. U. S. Webb, and so his claims were held up. But under a ruling of Superior Judge S.
L. Strother a few days ago, a way for payment was opened.Strother held that the Supervisors act in a judicial capacity in the matter of all money claims against the county, and that the approval of the board is all that is necessary to make a claim legal.The county auditor, William Kelly, will Kelly had refused to pass through any "stool pigeon" demands.Oils, claims of this same sort,
but not yet presented, are understood to total about $1000. The policy, however, is no longer
the "stool pigeon" system in handling its liquor investigations, and the claims originated some months ago.

SAVED BY BABY

Cries of her baby saved her from death, believe that the husband, Mary U. Lozano says in a complaint for divorce filed here yesterday. On the 1st inst., she says, the husband, Pedro M. Lozano, took her to the home of friends, told them she had been freed from the hands of the husband, and that she was free to marry. Early next day, the complaint says, she and her husband went to a party. The husband put a pistol to her head and told her she was about to die. Then the child began to cry and, as the husband was about to shoot, the killing until a later date. The couple were married here October 9, 1918.

MISCHIEVOUS BOYS BLAMED
for Explosions Occurring
at Ontario

ONTARIO, Sept. 12.—Reports of further bomb explosions in various parts of the city were received by the Ontario police today, following the explosion of a bomb in the yard of Harry Rush, 129 East Main street, Sunday night.
Reports of bomb explosions on recent nights in the vicinity of the city have been received by the Ontario police, according to
H. W. Kendrick, 703 East
E street; Ralph E. Shaw, 642 East E street; from residents in the ranching district of North Campus avenue, and from residents in the southwest part of the city. The police believe that the bomb throwing is work of a group of boys who are craving excitement. Scuffs found in the Rush yard following the explosion, were shown that the bomb was a cheap, homemade affair. The one exploded in the Kendrick yard a night or two earlier was said to be of similar make.

RAISE LIBRARIANS' PAY

Salary Increases Granted by Bakersfield Supervisors

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 12.—In response to a request from Mrs.
Julia C. Babcock, county librarian, County Supervisors yesterday
raised the salary of Miss Mabel G.
West, assistant librarian, from $150 to $175 a month, and added $5 to $10 to salaries of four other library employees.

Mrs. Marian C. Post was appointed librarian of the City Hall branch at $150 a month. Mrs.
Babcock asked the Supervisors to raise her salary to $175 a month
because of her long service and experience.Mrs. Post will be obliged to stay in the South for some time because of her mother's health. Miss Muriel Wright, daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. Ward Wright, was appointed to fill Mrs. Post's place during her absence.

ONTARIO, Sept. 12.—The annual independence feast and patriotic celebration of Mexico and Central America will be conducted here Saturday and Sunday.

Committee in charge of the event announce that an array of Latin-American notables will be assembled to participate in a monster program. Unusual interest has been manifest in the coming event by Americans and citizens of the Latin-American countries due to the recent recognition of Mexico.

Amusement men and concessionaires are assisting in making the celebration one of the most joyous events of the season. The feature of the frolic will be in the form of a highly artistic and dramatic entertainment which will be staged Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the head of the lagoon.
Isabel Zenteno, noted singer, will be featured on the program.

The entire city will be adorned
in the national colors of the Latin-American Republics, according to an announcement of the Venice Amusement Men's Association, under whose auspices the event is being given.

High Tax Plan
in Imperial to Hit Speculator

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
EL CENTRO, Sept. 12.—Directors of the Imperial Irrigation District this week are considering an increase of the district tax rate from $2.50 to $5. Members of the board now sitting as a board of equalization declined to admit that they actually would make the increase, although they indicated that it is possible.

The purpose of the proposed increased rate is asserted to bring in much additional revenue to the district as well as to bring under cultivation several thousand additional acres of land now idle, but if put into effect would directly hit absentee land-owners who are holding their land idle for speculative purposes. The proposed plan of a higher tax provides for giving credit on their water bills to actual cultivators of the soil of $2.50 out of the total of $5 collected on non-fide farmers. The rate of $2.50 prevailed last year.

Attorneys for the district board of directors have advised them that the 100 per cent increase in the rate, if worked out along the lines indicated, would be legal. The Country Farm Bureau directors were told of the plan and endorsed it, according to district officials.

Tales of Outlawry Thought

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
POMONA, Sept. 12.—With ten of its members already having been arrested, local officers believe today that they have broken up one of the most daring youthful bandit gangs that has ever operated in this part of the State. The boys are all in their early teens
and their operations are said to have covered a considerable period.

Those who have already been arrested will face the specific charge of robbing a concession house at Ganesha Park last Saturday morning. After the youths have been closely questioned and their alleged depredations thoroughly investigated the police expect to clear up a large number of house robberies that have been perpetrated within the last few months.

Those who already have been arrested are said to be Harry Williams, Bob Kooner, Carl Sanders, Don Hyden, John
Brooks, Kenneth Wilson, Raymond
Boles, Theodore Samaki, Elmo
Rose and Loren Williams. Police state that several others soon will be caught. Police believe they were inspired by tales of banditry and outlawry. The boys are said to have conducted systematic and carefully planned raids and plundering expeditions.

EDITORS CANCEL TRIP

Conflict in Dates Precludes Visit
to Oxnard

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
OXNARD, Sept. 12.—The trip of the Southern California editors scheduled to take place Saturday and Sunday, the 15th and 16th inst.,
has been canceled, according to Paul W. Moore, president of the Southern California Editorial Association. He explains that on account of the small number of editors desiring to make the trip in Oxnard, the trip has been canceled.

He thought it best to cancel it. The small number of favorable replies is due to the trip just enjoyed by the Southern editors as guests of the Southern California Edison Company, to their Big Truck and San Joaquin River projects in Fresno county. The trip to Oxnard was scheduled the same time
as the Edison trip, but due to conflicting dates the Edison Company advanced their date one week.

Y.M.C.A. CONFERENCE

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
POMONA, Sept. 12.—A conference of at least 150 laymen of the Y.M.C.A. Laymen's Institute of Southern California will be held here November 20, 21, and 22.
The trip will be in connection with the "Old-Time" Conference of Southern California. It was announced today at the local Y.M.C.A. The boys' conference will bring about 400 representatives from Southern California. The coming men's conference will cause a housing problem to be worked out.

PASADENA MAN
PASSES AWAY

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
PASADENA, Sept. 12.—Coming as a shock to his friends, Kenyon Warren died this morning at the Pasadena hospital. An operation was performed on him yesterday in an effort to save his life.

Until the time of his death Mr.
Warren, who is National Chairman of National Selected Morticians, had been making plans for a convention of that body which will meet here in October.

For twenty-three years Mr.
Warren had been a member of the firm of Ives & Warren, funeral directors in Pasadena. He was at one time president of the State organization of funeral directors
and for two years was president of Southern California Funeral Directors' Association.

Mr. Warren had resided in Pasadena for the past thirty-one years. His home is located at 754 North Orange Grove avenue. Recently he took a trip in his private yacht to Panama and South Sea islands for his health. He was born in Concord, N. H., in 1854.

He is survived by his widow,
Mrs. Anna Peterson Warren, a son, Clyde Warren, two

REID NAMED TO ANAHEIM POSITION

Delano Man New Secretary of Commerce Chamber Achievements in His Position Are Cited

Predecessor Received Flattering Offers

ANAHEIM, Sept. 12.—The Reid, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce,
to Anaheim on October 1, retary of the local Cham-Commerces, it was an-board of directors, successor to Malcolm Fraser,
in office at Delano since last three years. Mr. Reid
a director of the Festival at Fresno and was member to the board of a $65,000 bond issue for the campaign which resulting in the building of the being held in Delano. The tion of that city is said
to be the best in the state.
With four other candi-Reid was selected from a list of five, being chosen the position of secretary of the California Valley Chamber of Commerce. The other candidates were
